Essential Question:

How can others inspire us?

courageous –a person who is brave

This week's Genre:

Poetry is text that gives an imaginative experience with words chosen and arranged to create an emotional response through meaning, sound, and rhythm.

Objective:

I can learn and understand a type of poetry called narrative.

This is a narrative poem in our leveled reader. Look for what we have learned about narrative poetry.

Genre Poetry

Comprehend Texts

Read about an adventurous kitten and an inspiring boy.

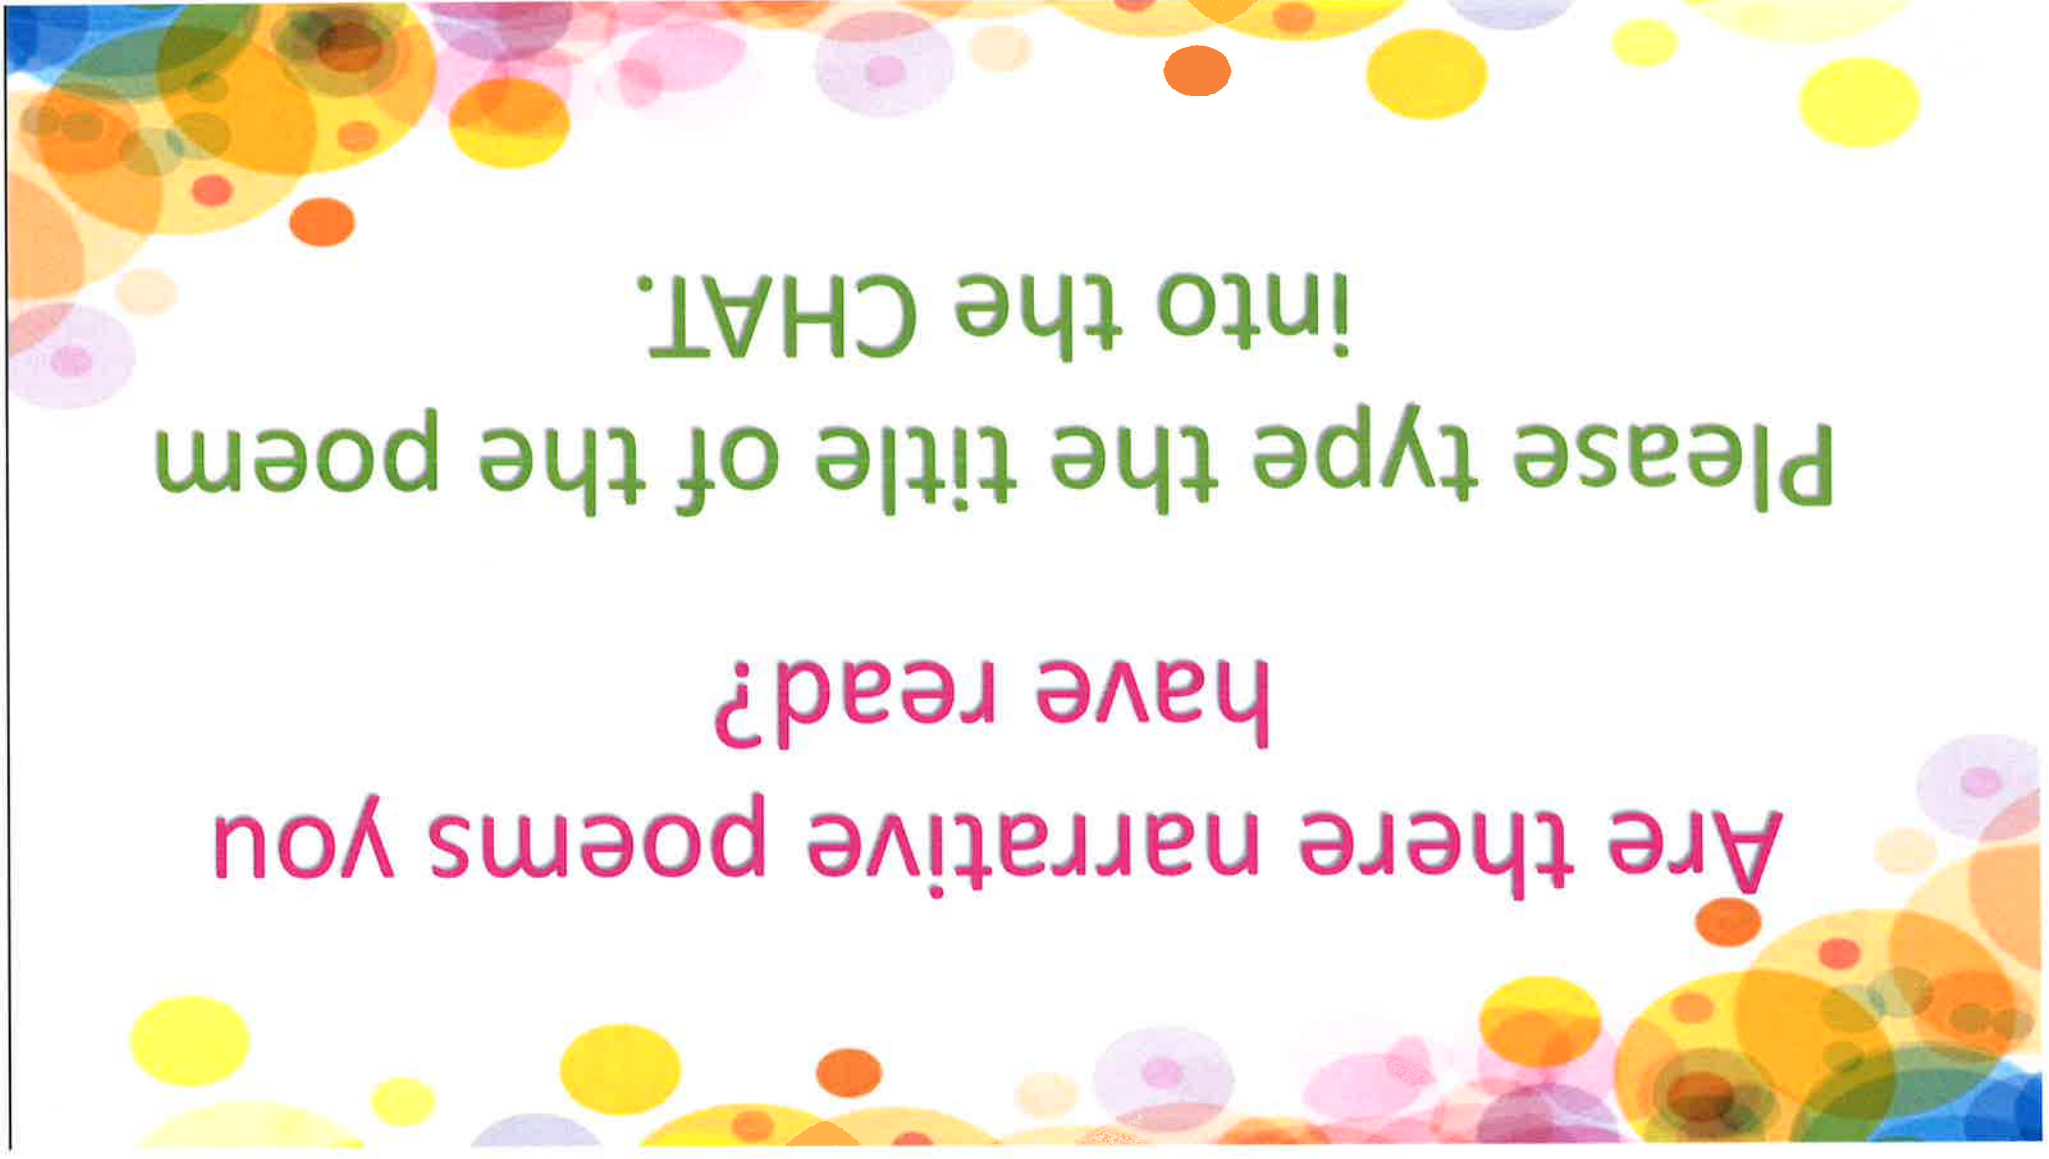

In the Land of Lions

Cassandra was a kitten,
A very curious kitten.
Her mother despaired,
And shook her head,
"No good will come to you," she said.

Cassandra was a lion,
At least that's what she thought.
She roamed the hot savanna,
And grappled with the wildebeest.
Her pride looked on in awe.

Math Lesson

Advantage Math

Objective:

I can recognize fractions in everyday objects and shade a model to represent a fractional part.

Hint: Think about your knowledge of unit fractions.

*Activity 6 is a project. Each student completes their own and uploads a picture or a video of their project.
