

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

RS30284 / S1094

This legislation would extend a temporary license and registration, usually applied to U.S. Medical School graduates for residency training in Idaho, to experienced International Medical Graduates who are forcibly displaced persons to address the severe doctor shortage while simultaneously putting experienced physicians to work.

FISCAL NOTE

There is no fiscal impact to the General Fund with this legislation. These programs are grant-funded and require no additional monies from the General Fund.
