

IN THE SENATE

SENATE BILL NO. 1157

BY JUDICIARY AND RULES COMMITTEE

AN ACT

1 RELATING TO JUDGES; AMENDING SECTION 1-2001, IDAHO CODE, TO REVISE PROVI-2 SIONS REGARDING JUDGES' RETIREMENTS, TO PROVIDE THAT CERTAIN JUDGES
3 SHALL NOT BE ELIGIBLE TO SERVE AS A SENIOR JUDGE AND MAY NOT ELECT TO RE-4 CEIVE RETIREMENT COMPENSATION, AND TO MAKE TECHNICAL CORRECTIONS; AND 5 DECLARING AN EMERGENCY AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE.
6

7 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Idaho:

8 SECTION 1. That Section 1-2001, Idaho Code, be, and the same is hereby 9 amended to read as follows:

10 1-2001. SUPREME COURT JUSTICES, COURT OF APPEALS JUDGES AND DISTRICT 11 JUDGES -- AGE OF RETIREMENT -- COMPENSATION ON RETIREMENT.

12 (1) (a) Every person who served as a justice of the supreme court or 13 judge of the court of appeals or district judge of the district court and 14 who was receiving benefits from the judges' retirement fund before July 15 1, 2000, for such service, shall be entitled to benefits from the fund 16 according to the formula for calculating such benefits as provided in 17 ~~section 1-2001(2)(a), Idaho Code~~ subsection (2) (a) of this section.

18 (b) The term "retirement board" as used in this chapter shall mean the 19 retirement board created by section 59-1304, Idaho Code.

20 (2) Any person who is now serving or who shall hereafter serve as a jus-21 tice of the supreme court, a judge of the court of appeals, or a district 22 judge of a district court of this state shall prior to retirement elect in 23 writing to retire under either paragraph (a) or (b) of this subsection, pro-24 vided that a person who has first assumed office as a supreme court justice, 25 judge of the court of appeals or district judge on or after July 1, 2012, and 26 who is eligible to receive an annual retirement compensation only under the 27 criteria set forth in subsection (3) (c) of this section, may retire only un-28 der paragraph (a) of this subsection. Any person who fails to make the elec-29 tion provided for in this subsection prior to retirement shall receive re-30 tirement compensation under the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subsec-31 tion.

32 (a) (i) On or after July 1, 2000, any person who has served or who 33 is now serving or who shall hereafter serve as a justice of the 34 supreme court, a judge of the court of appeals, or a district judge 35 of a district court of this state may leave office or retire and 36 be entitled to receive, and to have paid from the date of his re-37 tirement until death, an annual retirement compensation payable 38 in monthly installments on the first day of each month.

39 (ii) A person who assumed office as a supreme court justice, judge
40 of the court of appeals or district judge prior to July 1, 2012, 41 shall receive an annual retirement compensation based upon a per-
42 centage of the current annual compensation of the highest office

1 in which such person served, unless such person makes an irrevoca-
2 ble election no later than August 1, 2012, to receive upon retire-
3 ment an annual retirement compensation based upon the provisions 4 in this paragraph applicable to justices or judges who first as-5 sumed such office on or after July 1, 2012.

6 (iii) A person who first assumed office as a supreme court justice,
7 judge of the court of appeals or district judge on or after July 1, 8 2012, shall receive an annual retirement compensation based upon 9 a percentage of the annual compensation at the time of such per-10 son's retirement or resignation from the highest office in which 11 such person served, and such compensation shall be adjusted annu-12 ally by the postretirement allowance adjustment established pur-13 suant to section 59-1355, Idaho Code.

14 (iv) The percentage applicable to all retiring justices and 15 judges shall be equal to five percent (5%) multiplied by the number 16 of years served as either justice or judge, or both, for the first 17 ten (10) years of service plus two and one-half percent (2 1/2%)
18 multiplied by the remaining number of years served as either jus-19 tice or judge, or both, but in any event the total percentage shall 20 not be greater than seventy-five percent (75%).

21 (b) (i) On or after July 1, 2000, any person who is now serving 22 or who shall hereafter serve as a justice of the supreme court, a 23 judge of the court of appeals, or a district judge of a district 24 court of this state may retire from office and be entitled to 25 receive, and to have paid from the date of his retirement until 26 death, an annual retirement compensation payable in monthly in-27 stallments on the first day of each month.

28 (ii) A person who assumed office as a supreme court justice, judge
29 of the court of appeals or district judge prior to July 1, 2012,
30 shall receive an annual retirement compensation based upon a per-
31 centage of the current annual compensation of the highest office
32 in which such person served, unless such person makes an irrevoca-
33 ble election no later than August 1, 2012, to receive upon retire-
34 ment an annual retirement compensation based upon the provisions 35 ~~in~~ of this paragraph applicable to justices or judges who first as-36 sumed such office on or after July 1, 2012.

37 (iii) A person who first assumed office as a supreme court justice,
38 judge of the court of appeals or district judge on or after July 1, 39 2012, shall receive an annual retirement compensation based upon a 40 percentage of the annual compensation at the time of such person's 41 retirement or resignation of the highest office in which such per-42 son served, and such compensation shall be adjusted annually by 43 the postretirement allowance adjustment established pursuant to 44 section 59-1355, Idaho Code.

45 (iv) The percentage applicable to all retiring justices and 46 judges shall be equal to five percent (5%) multiplied by the num-47 ber of years served as either justice or judge, or both, for the 48 first ten (10) years of service plus two and one-half percent (2 49 1/2%) multiplied by the remaining number of years served as either 50 justice or judge, or both, plus two and one-half percent (2 1/2%)

1 multiplied by five (5) years senior judge service, but in any event 2 the total percentage shall not be greater than seventy-five per-3 cent (75%).

4 (c) (i) A justice or judge electing to retire at the conclusion of 5 his term of office under paragraph (b) of this subsection and who 6 assumed office as a supreme court justice, judge of the court of 7 appeals or district judge prior to July 1, 2012, shall serve as a 8 senior judge, without compensation other than annual health ben-9 efits, for thirty-five (35) days per year for a period of five (5) 10 years.

11 (ii) A justice or judge electing to retire at the conclusion of his 12 term of office under paragraph (b) of this subsection and who first 13 assumed office as a supreme court justice, judge of the court of 14 appeals or district judge on or after July 1, 2012, shall serve as a 15 senior judge, without compensation other than annual health bene-16 fits, for sixty (60) days per year for a period of five (5) years.

17 (iii) A justice or judge who serves more than the required number 18 of days per year may carry over the additional days to fulfill the 19 senior judge service obligation in future years. The terms and 20 conditions of such senior judge service shall be as provided under 21 section 1-2005, Idaho Code.

22 (iv) A supreme court justice, judge of the court of appeals, or 23 district judge of the district court who retires other than at the 24 conclusion of his term of office shall not be eligible to serve as 25 a senior judge under this section and may not elect to receive re-26 retirement compensation under paragraph (b) of this subsection.

27 (d) Upon certification from the chief justice that any justice or judge 28 who retired under paragraph (b) of this subsection has failed to perform 29 the senior judge services required under paragraph (c) of this subsec-30 tion, and has not been relieved of the obligations to perform those ser-31 vices in the manner provided by this subsection, the judges' retirement 32 fund shall recalculate the retirement compensation benefits of the non-33 complying justice or judge under paragraph (a) of this subsection, and 34 the noncomplying justice or judge shall thereafter receive only the re-35 calculated amount.

36 (e) A justice or judge may be relieved of the senior judge service obli-37 gation imposed by this subsection if he fails for good cause to complete 38 the obligation. A retired justice or judge who is relieved of the obli-39 gation to serve as a senior judge shall continue to receive the retire-40 ment allowance provided under paragraph (b) of this subsection.

41 (f) "Good cause" includes, but is not limited to:

42 (i) Physical or mental incapacitation of a justice or judge that 43 prevents the justice or judge from discharging the duties of judi-44 cial office;

45 (ii) Failure of the supreme court to assign a senior judge to the 46 requisite amount of senior judge service, whether because of in-47 sufficient need for senior judges, a determination by the supreme 48 court that the skills of a senior judge do not match the needs of 49 the courts, clerical mistake or otherwise; or

50 (iii) Death of a senior judge.

1 (g) "Good cause" does not include:

2 (i) A senior judge's refusal, without good cause, to accept se-3 nior judge assignments sufficient to meet the required amount; or 4 (ii) A senior judge's affirmative voluntary act that makes him un-5 qualified to serve as a judge of this state including, but not lim-6 ited to, failure to maintain a residence within the state, com-7 mencing the practice of law other than as a mediator, arbitrator 8 or similar alternative dispute resolution function, acceptance of 9 a position in another branch of state government or political sub-10 division, or the acceptance of a position in the government of the 11 United States or of another state or nation.

12 (h) The supreme court may make rules for the implementation of this sub-13 section.

14 (3) On or after July 1, 2000, each person who has served but is not re-15 ceiving benefits or who is now serving or who shall hereafter serve who shall 16 leave office or retire as justice of the supreme court, judge of the court of 17 appeals, or district judge of a district court in this state shall be eligi-18 ble to receive an annual retirement compensation when such person shall meet 19 one (1) of the following eligibility criteria:

20 (a) Attaining the age of sixty-five (65) years and having a minimum ser-21 vice of four (4) years;

22 (b) Attaining the age of sixty (60) years and having a minimum service 23 of ten (10) years;

24 (c) Attaining the age of fifty-five (55) years and having a minimum ser-25 vice of fifteen (15) years; or

26 (d) At any age after twenty (20) years of service.

27 (4) (a) On or after July 1, 2000, each justice or judge who is now serv-28 ing or who shall hereafter be appointed or elected and who shall retire 29 by reason of disability preventing him from further performance of the 30 duties of his office, after a service in any or all of said courts of four 31 (4) years or more, shall, upon retirement, be entitled to receive and to 32 have paid to him until death an annual retirement compensation payable 33 in monthly installments on the first day of each month.

34 (b) A person who assumed office as a supreme court justice, judge of 35 the court of appeals or district judge prior to July 1, 2012, shall re-36 ceive an annual retirement compensation based upon a percentage of the 37 current annual compensation of the highest office in which such person 38 served, unless such person makes an irrevocable election no later than 39 August 1, 2012, to receive upon retirement an annual retirement compen-40 sation based upon the provisions in this subsection applicable to jus-41 tices or judges who first assumed such office on or after July 1, 2012.

42 (c) A person who first assumed office as a supreme court justice, judge 43 of the court of appeals or district judge on or after July 1, 2012, 44 shall receive an annual retirement compensation based upon a percentage 45 of the annual compensation at the time of such person's retirement or 46 resignation from the highest office in which such person has served, 47 and such compensation shall be adjusted annually by the postretirement
48 allowance adjustment established pursuant to section 59-1355, Idaho 49 Code.

1 (d) The percentage applicable to all justices and judges who retire by 2 reason of disability shall be equal to five percent (5%) multiplied by 3 the number of years served as either justice or judge, or both, for the 4 first ten (10) years of service, plus two and one-half percent (2 1/2%) 5 multiplied by the remaining number of years served as either justice or 6 judge, or both, but such percentage shall not exceed seventy-five per-7 cent (75%).

8 (5) All retirement compensation shall be paid out of the judges' re-9 tirement fund, provided however, that a justice or judge who has served less 10 than four (4) years shall be entitled to have refunded to him all contribu-11 tions made by him to the judges' retirement fund, with six and one-half per-12 cent (6 1/2%) interest computed annually but shall not be entitled to any 13 other compensation from the fund.

14 (6) A person who has retired from the office of supreme court justice, 15 judge of the court of appeals or district judge prior to July 1, 2012, or 16 any other person receiving benefits as of July 1, 2012, may make an irrev-17 ocable election no later than August 1, 2012, to thereafter receive an an-18 nual retirement compensation or allowance equal to the amount of the annual 19 retirement compensation or allowance such person was receiving as of July 20 1, 2012, and to have such compensation or allowance thereafter adjusted an-21 nually by the postretirement allowance adjustment established pursuant to 22 section 59-1355, Idaho Code.

23 (7) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, any person 24 who makes an election to remain in the public employee retirement system of 25 Idaho as provided in section 1-2011, Idaho Code, shall not participate in 26 the judges' retirement fund established in this chapter, but shall continue 27 to participate in the public employee retirement system of Idaho and be 28 governed under the provisions of that system, except as provided in section 29 1-2005, Idaho Code.

30 SECTION 2. An emergency existing therefor, which emergency is hereby 31 declared to exist, this act shall be in full force and effect on and after 32 July 1, 2023.
