Dear Chairman Wood and Chairman Heider:

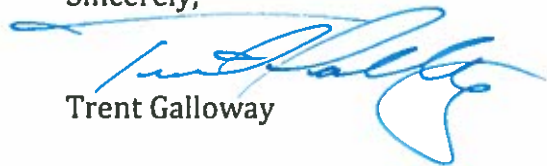

As student pharmacists at Idaho State University College of Pharmacy, we write to you in strong support of House Bill 191.

This bill would increase patient access to simple, low-risk medications. Such an approach increases consumer access and can lower healthcare costs.

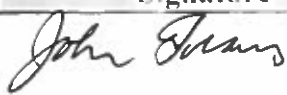

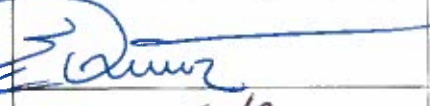

All student pharmacists today graduate with a Doctor of Pharmacy degree that requires a minimum of six years of college to complete. We receive extensive training in pharmacology, pharmaceuticals, pharmacokinetics, and we undertake a rigorous study of therapeutics. Pharmacists are recognized as medication experts on the healthcare team, and they are consistently rated as among the most trusted professionals in the country.

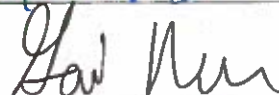

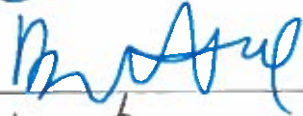

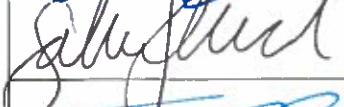

As future pharmacists, we are eager and excited to help address patient care needs within our education and training. This bill is an important step in helping pharmacists be better leveraged to their full potential in the state of Idaho, which can significantly improve public health goals for our state!

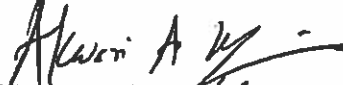

Sincerely,

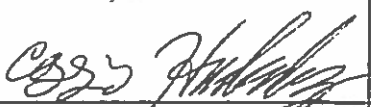

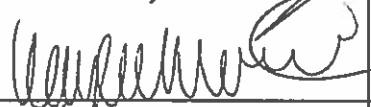

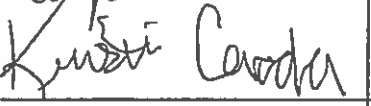

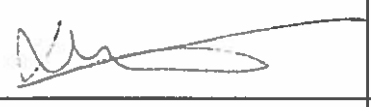

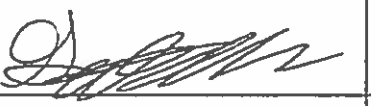

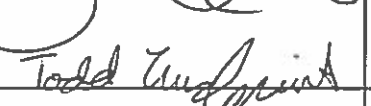

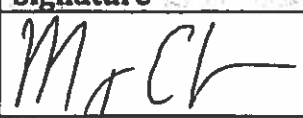

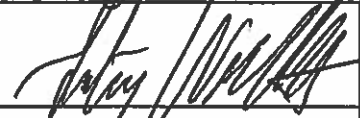

Trent Galloway
