17 of a fit parent's decision regarding visitation, which presumption can only 18 be overcome by clear and convincing evidence that visitation would be in the 19 best interests of the child, in accordance with the factors set forth in sec-
20 tion 32-1804, Idaho Code.

21 (3) The district court shall give the parent's decision special weight 22 when considering the parent's evidence and the petitioner's rebuttal evi-23 dence.

24 (4) The district court shall not substitute its opinion on visitation 25 for that of a fit parent.

26 (5) The district court may grant a petition and issue an order estab-27 lishing reasonable visitation rights if the court finds that such visitation 28 is in the best interests of the child.

29 (6) In cases where both parents have custodial time with the child, the 30 district court shall award visitation only during the scheduled custody time 31 of the parent to whom the petitioner is a parent or grandparent, as defined in 32 this chapter.

33 (7) The district court may award reasonable attorney fees to the parent 34 when the court finds that the petition was brought or pursued unreasonably, 35 frivolously, or without foundation.
