

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

RS27030

In Idaho, there are 14 resort cities. This bill provides an exception for movie theaters in a resort city. They would have the option of not segregating patrons when they are providing retail sale and consumption of beer and wine on the licensed premises.

FISCAL NOTE

There is no impact to the General Fund because the proposed changes will not increase the number of licenses available under this section. The changes also seek to make minor technical corrections, which will have no impact upon the General Fund.
