

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

RS32029 / S1032

Extensive scientific research has identified mobile devices as detrimental to students' learning. This legislation requires that all school districts assess the impact of mobile device use on students and develop policies that promote distraction-free learning. It grants local school districts the flexibility to create policies tailored to their specific needs and circumstances.

FISCAL NOTE

This bill does not have any fiscal impact because it only requires a district to set a policy.
