

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

RS32230 / S1062

This legislation clarifies aspects of leases, permits, or other types of land use for commercial purposes. Going forward:

- The State Land Board shall provide notice to county commissioners when an agreement is executed involving State land in their respective counties.
- All leases, permits, and other types of land use authorizations for commercial purposes will now include a provision that requires compliance by the signatory with applicable county planning and zoning ordinances.
- Revenues generated from these agreements for commercial purposes are not exempt from public disclosure.

FISCAL NOTE

This legislation will not impact the State's General Fund or any dedicated fund or federal fund. Therefore, this legislation has no fiscal impact.
