PUBLIC HEARING NOTICE

Idaho's Citizen Commission for Reapportionment 2011 Public Hearing

Idaho's second Citizen Commission for Reapportionment will meet on June 23, 2011.

The Commission is responsible for drawing new congressional and legislative district boundaries to equalize population following the 2010 federal census.

Lewiston

⇨ Thursday, June 23, 2011 – 7:00 pm to approximately 9:00 pm
@Lewis-Clark College, Williams Conference Center

The public is invited to speak and/or submit written comments to the Commission as it prepares to draw plans. When speaking to the Commission, an individual may address any area pertinent to the redistricting process. The Commission would like to hear testimony regarding areas of local community interests including demographics, economics, geography, population trends and political and historical factors. Individuals and groups speaking before the Commission are encouraged to supply a written copy of their testimony.

A signup sheet will be available at the door for those who wish to address the Commission.

For additional information please call the Commission for Reapportionment, 334-4740 or visit www.redistricting.idaho.gov
