MINORITY REPORT

DISSENTING TO THE SENATE'S CONSIDERATION OF EXECUTIVE APPOINTMENT

We, the undersigned Senators do respectfully dissent from the Senate's consideration of the Gubernatorial appointment of Mark G. Ricks as Lieutenant Governor in the First Extraordinary Session of the Fifty-Eighth Legislature. Pursuant to Rule 21(B) of the Rules of the Senate, we submit this Minority Report based on the following facts and conclusions:

Article IV, Section 9 of the Idaho Constitution sets forth the scope of subjects which can be considered in an extraordinary session of the Legislature, providing specifically

SECTION 9. EXTRA SESSIONS OF LEGISLATURE. The governor may, on extraordinary occasions, convene the legislature by proclamation, stating the purposes for which he has convened it; but when so convened it shall have no power to legislate on any subjects other than those specified in the proclamation; but may provide for the expenses of the session and other matters incidental thereto. He may also, by proclamation, convene the senate in extraordinary session for the transaction of executive business.

The Proclamation issued by Idaho Governor James E. Risch on July 25, 2006, and convening the First Extraordinary Session of the Fifty-Eighth Legislature did not include within its scope a call to "convene the senate in extraordinary session for the transaction of executive business" within the scope of Article IV, Section 9. It is for this reason that we, the undersigned Senators, object to the Senate's consideration of the Gubernatorial appointment of Mark G. Ricks as Lieutenant Governor.

The undersigned Senators are satisfied that Lt. Governor Ricks possesses the qualifications and skills required to fulfill the duties of Lieutenant Governor. For this reason, we supported the recommendation that his appointment be confirmed while objecting to the fact that his confirmation was considered in this Extraordinary Session of the Legislature.

Dated this 25th day of August, 2006.

/s/ Senator Clint Stennett
 /s/ Senator Edgar Malepeai
 /s/ Senator Mike Burkett
 /s/ Senator Kate Kelly
 /s/ Senator Bert Marley
 /s/ Senator Elliot Werk
 /s/ Senator David Langhorst

The President ordered the minority report filed in the office of the Secretary of the Senate and spread upon the pages of the Journal pursuant to Senate Rule 21(B).

Senator Davis requested a ruling of the Chair pertaining to the written protest filed by Senators Stennett, Marley, Malepeai, Burkett, Kelly, Werk, and Langhorst under Senate Rule 44. The President ruled the written protest out of order since the protest was not of any Senate action.

Senator Stennett appealed the ruling of the Chair, and he was supported by Senators Kelly and Burkett.

The question being, "Shall the ruling of the Chair be sustained?"

Roll call vote was requested by Senators Stennett, Werk, and Kelly.

Roll call resulted as follows:

MINORITY REPORT

DISSENTING TO THE CONCLUSIONS OF THE
 COMMITTEE TO SEND HOUSE BILL 1 TO THE SENATE
 FLOOR WITH NO RECOMMENDATION

We, the undersigned Senators do respectfully dissent from the decision of the Senate Committee on Local Government and Taxation to send House Bill 1 to the Senate floor with no recommendation. We submit this Minority Report based on the following facts and conclusions:

1. The discussion and testimony in the committee was improperly limited to House Bill 1, and minor amendments thereto, thereby precluding full exploration of the alternatives and their comparative consequences. The Committee's recommendation represents a major change in tax policy and we feel that it was arrived at without a full discussion of viable alternatives. The people of the state of Idaho expect more from their legislators.

2. The bill does not target relief to the class of taxpayers who need it – owner occupied homeowners who have seen their taxes increase four times faster than other property owners.

3. The bill imposes a 20% sales tax increase to fund the across-the-board property tax reduction. Analyses by experts show that this shift disproportionately impacts renters, and average Idaho families. There is an alternative Routing Slip, prohibited from being introduced in this Extraordinary Session, that would deliver property tax relief in a manner targeted to homeowners without requiring this unnecessary sales tax increase.

4. The bill provides a tax reduction to classes of properties owners who have actually seen a decrease in property taxes over the last five years.

5. The bill shifts education funding to a tax that is paid primarily by individuals while providing a large tax cut to sales tax exempt entities. In doing so, it destabilizes and eliminates diversity in public education funding thereby placing public education at risk.

Over the objection of the undersigned, the majority of the members of the Senate Committee on Local Government and Taxation have voted to send House Bill 1 to the Senate floor with a do pass recommendation. We hereby respectfully request documentation of our objection to that decision in the Senate journal.

Dated this 25th day of August, 2006.

/s/ Senator David Langhorst
 /s/ Senator Edgar Malepeai
