* IDAPA 16.03.04 - Rules Governing the Food Stamp Program in Idaho (Docket No. 16-0304-0802) (Temporary and Proposed);
* IDAPA 16.03.05 - Rules Governing Eligibility for Aid to the Aged, Blind and Disabled (AABD) (Docket No. 16-0305-0801) (Temporary and Proposed);
* IDAPA 16.03.06 - Rules Governing Refugee Medical Assistance (Docket No. 16-0306-0801) (Temporary and Proposed); and
* IDAPA 16.03.08 - Rules Governing Temporary Assistance for Families in Idaho (TAFI) (Docket No. 16-0308-0802) (Temporary and Proposed).

The Department of Health and Welfare submits temporary and proposed rule docket Nos. 16-0301-0801 (Eligibility for Health Care Assistance for Families and Children); 16-0304-0802 (Rules Governing the Food Stamp Program in Idaho); 16-0305-0801 (Rules Governing Eligibility for Aid to the Aged, Blind and Disabled); 16-0306-0801 (Rules Governing Refugee Medical Assistance); and 16-0308-0802 (Rules Governing Temporary Assistance for Families in Idaho) (hereinafter "temporary and proposed rules") to amend IDAPA chapters 16.03.01, 16.03.04, 16.03.05, 16.03.06 and 16.03.08.

According to the Department, this rulemaking is to comply with new laws imposed by the federal government that confer benefits for two new immigration classifications for certain Afghan and Iraqi immigrants who have worked for the United States and would be facing ongoing threat if they were to stay in their own country. In addition, the Department states that Docket No. 16-0301-0801 is being amended to align provisions for Transitional Medicaid with federal law which requires the participant to report quarterly and to delete procedural language.

The Governor's justification for the temporary and proposed rules is to comply with deadlines in amendments to governing law or federal programs and to confer a benefit to special immigrants for health care. No federal deadlines are specified by the Department. The temporary rules went into effect on three dates: December 26, 2007, with regard to the Afghan special immigrants; January 28, 2008, with regard to the Iraqi special immigrants; and July 1, 2008, with regard to Transitional Medicaid.

According to the Department, the temporary and proposed rules are authorized pursuant to sections 56-202 and/or 56-203, Idaho Code; Public Laws 110-161 and 110-181; and/or 45 CFR. Parts 260-265. Section 56-202(b), Idaho Code, provides the Department with general and broad rulemaking authority under Idaho's public assistance law. Section 56-203(b), Idaho Code, provides the Department with the power to cooperate with the federal government in carrying out the purposes of any federal acts pertaining to public assistance or welfare services and other matters of mutual concern. Section 56-203(g), Idaho Code, grants the Department the power to define persons entitled to medical assistance in such terms as will meet requirements for federal financial participation in medical assistance payments.

The Department does not state what provisions in Public Laws 110-161 and 110-181 it relies upon as authority. Public Law 110-161 is the Consolidate Appropriations Act of 2008, and includes appropriations for the Department of State, foreign operations, and related programs for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2008. Public law 110-181 is the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2008, with certain modifications to address the foreign sovereign immunities provisions of title 28, United States Code, with respect to the attachment of property in certain judgements against Iraq, the lapse of statutory authorities for the payment of bonuses, special pays, and similar benefits for members of the uniformed services and for other purposes. 45 CFR Parts 260-265 provide for general temporary assistance for needy families (TANF) provisions, ensuring that recipients work, accountability provisions--general, expenditure of state and federal TANF funds, other accountability provisions and data collection and reporting requirements. The Department failed to provide a copy of the specific federal law or regulation upon which the proposed rulemaking is based as required by section 67-5223(1), Idaho Code.

According to the Department, no fee or charge is imposed by the temporary and proposed rules. The Department states that Docket No. 16-0301-0801, dealing with eligibility for health care assistance for families and children, has an anticipated fiscal impact to the state general fund of $332,947, which is thirty percent (30%) of federal matching funds that Docket No. 16-0305-0801, dealing with eligibility for aid to the aged, blind and disabled, has an anticipated general fund impact of $58,108, which is also thirty percent (30%) of federal matching funds. No general fund impact is anticipated by the Department for Docket Nos. 16-0304-0802, 16-0306-0801 or 16-0308-0802.

According to the Department, negotiated rulemaking was not conducted because the rulemaking is being made to comply with federal regulations. The Department states that public hearing(s) will be scheduled if requested in writing by 25 persons, a political subdivision or an agency, not later than August 20, 2008. All written comments must be delivered to the Department on or before August 27, 2008.

ANALYSIS

1. Afghan and Iraqi Special Immigrant Amendments

Four of the five dockets provide identical program eligibility language for “Afghan Special Immigrants” (“Afghan special immigrants, as defined in Public Law 110-161, who have special immigration status after December 26, 2007, are eligible for six (6) months from the date they enter into the U.S. as a special immigrant or the date they convert to the special immigrant status.”) and for “Iraqi Special Immigrants” (“An Iraqi special immigrant, as defined in Public Law 100-181, who has special immigration status after January 28, 2008, is eligible for eight (8) months from the date they enter the U.S. as a special immigrant or the date they convert to the special immigrant status.”). See IDAPA sections 16.03.01.220.13 and .14; 16.03.05.106.15 and .16; 16.03.06.100.02 and .03; and 16.03.08.131.09 and .10.

Docket No. 16-0304-0802 reaches the same result by amending its Food Stamps “Citizenship and Qualified Non-Citizen Requirements” to include “regarding special immigrants, Public Law 110-161, effective December 26, 2007, and Public Law 110-181, effective January 28, 2008.”

In addition, Docket No. 16-0301-0802 has been amended to provide that sponsor deeming is not required for Afghan special immigrants or Iraqi special immigrants. IDAPA 16.03.01.251. This docket has been further amended to provide that a child who is an Afghan special immigrant and is approved for six months or who is an Iraqi special immigrant and is approved for eight months is not eligible for continuous health care assistance. IDAPA 16.03.01.525.02.c and .d.

2. Additional Docket No. 16-0301-0802 Amendments

According to the Department, Docket No. 16-0301-0802 is being further amended to align provisions for Transitional Medicaid with federal law which requires the participant to report quarterly and to delete procedural language from the rule.

The eligibility for Transitional Medicaid has been changed under the temporary and proposed rule. Now, individuals or families may be eligible for up to twelve months of Transitional Medicaid if the family income exceeds the AFDC payment standard for one of three reasons: (1) The family has Idaho TAFI income and income from employment and must have received AFCD-related Medicaid in Idaho the month before becoming ineligible; (2) Employment income has increased and the family received AFDC-related Medicaid in Idaho three of the past six months before becoming ineligible; or (3) The family is no longer entitled to the thirty dollars plus one-third income disregard (disallowed after four months) or the thirty dollar disregard (disallowed eight months after the thirty dollars plus one third income disregard expires) and the family received AFDC-related Medicaid in Idaho three of the past six months before becoming ineligible. The AFDC payment standard, set forth in a table at IDAPA 16.03.01.411, was last updated on March 30, 2007, and ranges from $643 (per month?) for one person to $2,426 (per month?) for a family of ten. Previously, Transitional Medicaid did not reference back to the AFDC payment standard table.

The temporary and proposed rule deletes the “Transitional Medicaid Notice Requirements,” which were stated at IDAPA 16.03.01.422. The “Transitional Medicaid Reporting Requirements” stated at IDAPA 16.03.01.423 have been reworked to provide that the three quarterly reports containing specific information must be completed and returned if a family is to continue to receive Transitional Medicaid for month seven through twelve. Each report must include the family gross earnings, expenses for dependent care needed for employment, any change in family composition and proof of month earnings and dependent care expenses.

The “Income Test for Transitional Medicaid” at IDAPA 16.03.01.424 has also be completely reworked to eliminate specific step-by-step income tests. In their place the income test is now: “The family’s reported earnings, less dependant care expenses necessary for employment, must not exceed one-hundred and eighty-five percent (185%) of FPG for the family size.”

SUMMARY

The Department’s temporary and proposed rule changes appear to be authorized under sections 56-202(b), 56-203(b) and (g), Idaho Code.
