Section 1, Article I, of the Constitution of the State of Idaho provides that "All men are by nature free and equal, and have certain inalienable rights, among which are enjoying and defending life and liberty; acquiring, possessing and protecting property; pursuing happiness and securing safety." The Legislature finds and declares that a central component of carrying out Section 1, Article I, of the Constitution of the State of Idaho and of state sovereignty is the inherent right of the state to protect the health, safety and welfare of its citizens and prevent cruelty to animals and wildlife within its borders.
