Net cost means the dealer's cost for a new, undamaged, unsold, and complete motor vehicle of the current model year or any previous model year acquired by the dealer within twelve (12) months of the date of termination and in a dealer's inventory purchased from the manufacturer or acquired from another dealer of the same line make in the ordinary course of business:

14 manufacturer and does convey or transfer title and possession of the inventory and other items
15 to the manufacturer.

16 (11) If the repurchase of any item under this section is subject to a security interest, the 17 manufacturer may make payment jointly to the dealer and to the holder of the security interest.

29 manufacturer shall commence to reimburse the dealer for one (1) year of the dealer's cost to 30 rent or lease the dealership's facility or location or for the unexpired term of the lease or rental 31 period, whichever is less, or, if the dealer owns the facility or location, for the equivalent of 32 one (1) year of the reasonable rental value of the facilities or location as determined by an 33 Idaho licensed commercial real estate appraiser. If more than one (1) franchise agreement is 34 being terminated, canceled, or not renewed, the reimbursement shall be prorated equally among 35 the different manufacturers. However, if a franchise agreement is terminated, canceled, or not 36 renewed but the dealer continues in business at the same location under a different franchise 37 agreement, the reimbursement required by this subsection shall not be required to be paid. In 38 addition, any reimbursement due under this subsection shall be reduced by any amount received 39 by the dealer by virtue of the dealer leasing, subleasing, or selling the facilities or location 40 during the year immediately following the termination, cancellation, or nonrenewal.
