

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

RS21027

The purpose of this bill is to ensure that the duties of the members within a county central committee are met and that seats are filled when there is a vacancy of position. At all times when there is a current vacancy of position requiring an appointment or when there is an election being held to fill open elected seats within a central committee, state central committees and/or county chairman should be required to meet, elect and/or appoint members of the central committee to fill these open vacancies.
