

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

RS22024

The use of tanning beds by minors is linked to significantly increased risk of potentially fatal skin cancer and other dermatology related health issues. This legislation will prohibit the use of ultraviolet tanning devices for any minor child in the state of Idaho under the age of 16 and requires parental consent for minor children ages 16 and 17.

FISCAL NOTE

No fiscal impact.

Contact:

Molly Steckel, Policy Director
Idaho Medical Association
(208) 344-7888