

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

RS22480

IDAHO DAY. President Abraham Lincoln having created Idaho on March 4, 1863, it is the intent of this legislation to officially recognize March 4 as IDAHO DAY, through which the people of Idaho may yearly celebrate the rich history, cultural diversity, unique beauty, and boundless resources of the State of Idaho and thereby gain a renewed sense of courage and confidence for the future. This legislation shall not constitute a reason to close state and political subdivision offices.
