14 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Idaho:

15 SECTION 1. LEGISLATIVE INTENT. It is the intent of the Legislature that 16 this act shall be known and may be cited as the "Sign Language Interpreters 17 Act" and shall be liberally construed and implemented to promote the pur-18 poses set forth in this chapter. The Legislature declares that it is in 19 the best interest of the public health, safety, and welfare to regulate the 20 practice of interpreting on behalf of consumers who are hearing, deaf, hard 21 of hearing, deaf-blind, or speech disabled by licensing and provisionally 22 licensing the providers of sign language interpreting services and estab-23 lishing and monitoring sign language interpreting standards in the State of 24 Idaho.

25 SECTION 2. That Title 54, Idaho Code, be, and the same is hereby amended 26 by the addition thereto of a NEW CHAPTER, to be known and designated as Chap-27 ter 56, Title 54, Idaho Code, and to read as follows:

28 CHAPTER 56
29 SIGN LANGUAGE INTERPRETERS

30 54-5601. SHORT TITLE. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as 31 the "Sign Language Interpreters Act."

32 54-5602. DEFINITIONS. (1) "Board" means the licensure board for sign 33 language interpreters as created in this chapter.

34 (2) "Bureau" means the Idaho bureau of occupational licenses as created 35 in section 67-2602, Idaho Code.

36 (3) "Code of ethics" includes the code of professional conduct for edu-37 cational interpreters as provided by rules of the board.

38 (4) "Consumer" means a hearing, deaf, hard of hearing, deaf-blind, or 39 speech-disabled person; or a person or an entity that requires the services

1 of an interpreter to effectively communicate and comprehend signed, writ-2 ten, and/or spoken discourse.

3 (5) "Continuing education units" or "CEUs" means a unit of measurement 4 for educational activities that meet established criteria for increasing 5 knowledge and competency.

6 (6) "Credential" means a qualification received after an evaluation 7 has been conducted by an entity that provides evidence of an individual's 8 minimum interpreting proficiency. The credentials may include, but are not 9 limited to, EIPA 3.5, RID NIC, RID SC:L, RID CSC, or NAD IV.

10 (7) "Deaf interpreter" means a professional who is deaf and is licensed 11 by the board.

12 (8) "Educational Interpreter Performance Assessment" (EIPA) means a 13 proficiency assessment for PreK-12 educational interpreting based on a five 14 point Likert scale. For purposes of this chapter, an interpreter meeting the 15 requirements of the Idaho Educational Interpreter Act, chapter 13, title 33, 16 Idaho Code, provides sufficient minimum evidence of competency.

17 (9) "General setting" means medical, legal, mental health, business 18 and commercial, governmental, postsecondary education settings, video re-19 lay call centers and other settings not to include PreK-12 educational set-20 tings, or religious settings. Interpreting provided via remote interpret-21 ing is considered a general setting.

22 (10) "Idaho Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf" (IdahoRID) means the 23 affiliate chapter of the Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf, Inc., serv-24 ing as an interpreter advocacy and professional organization and as incorpo-25 rated at the time of enactment.

26 (11) "Interpreter" means a professional who is licensed by the board; 27 using a source language message and, after working through a complex physi-28 cal and mental process, expresses an equivalent message into the target lan-29 guage, maintaining essential elements of meaning and intent. An educational 30 interpreter is an interpreter who works in a school setting, PreK-12.

31 (12) "Interpreting" means the process of providing effective communi-32 cation between and among persons who are deaf, hard of hearing or deaf-blind, 33 speech impaired and those who can hear. The process includes, but is not lim-
34 ited to, communication between American sign language or other forms of man-35 ual communication and English. The process may also involve various other 36 modalities that involve visual, gestural and tactile methods.

37 (13) "Interpreting referral agency" includes any organization that 38 arranges, contracts with, or employs interpreters to provide interpreting 39 services for a third party.

40 (14) "Nationally recognized certification" means certification or 41 professional credential awarded to individuals who successfully complete 42 an evaluation of interpreting skills at a professional level. The term 43 includes a credential issued, recognized, or both by the registry of inter-44 preters for the deaf.

45 (15) "Person" means an individual and does not mean an association of 46 individuals or a legal entity.

47 (16) "PreK-12 educational setting" means a school setting, public or 48 private, within Idaho, not to include postsecondary education.

49 (17) "Sign language" or "American sign language" or "ASL" means a 50 visual-gestural language which incorporates facial grammatical markers,

1 physical affect markers, spatial linguistic information, and finger-
 2 spelling, as well as signs made with the hands. ASL is a distinct language 3 with its own grammar and syntax.

4 (18) "State association of the deaf" or "association" means an associa-5 tion of the deaf acting as a consumer advocacy organization serving the deaf 6 and hard of hearing population of Idaho and as incorporated at the time of en-7 actment.

8 54-5603. SCOPE OF PRACTICE. (1) On and after July 1, 2016, a person
 9 who provides interpreting services in a general setting or a PreK-12 setting 10 must be licensed by the board unless that person is exempt pursuant to the 11 provisions of this chapter.

12 (2) A license shall be renewed annually upon submission of documenta-13 tion of current validation of a national/state recognized credential as ap-14 proved by the board; documentation of a minimum of one (1) CEU; and payment of 15 the nonrefundable renewal fee pursuant to the board rules and procedures.

16 (3) A PreK-12 license must be renewed annually upon submission of: doc-17 umentation of meeting the minimum standard as defined in chapter 13, title 18 33, Idaho Code, the Idaho educational interpreter act, and shall be renewed 19 in compliance with section 56-5611, Idaho Code.

20 54-5604. EXEMPTIONS FOR LICENSURE. The provisions of this act shall 21 not apply to the following:

22 (1) A person holding a current general license, unless the license is 23 provisional, is allowed to interpret in a preschool and/or K-12 setting pur-24 suant to section 33-1304, Idaho Code.

25 (2) A person who is deaf or hard of hearing and does not possess inter-26 preter certification or credentials may, at the discretion of an Idaho-li-27 censed interpreter who holds a license appropriate for the setting, perform 28 in the role of a deaf interpreter.

29 (3) A student enrolled in an accredited sign language interpreter ed-30 ucational program if sign language interpreting services performed by the 31 student are an integral part of the student's course of study and are per-32 formed under the direct supervision of a licensed sign language interpreter 33 assigned to supervise the student;

34 (4) A visiting sign language interpreter permanently residing outside 35 of the state and operating as a consultant or providing services from out-36 side the state that employ sign language interpreters. However, if a visit-37 ing sign language interpreter permanently residing outside the state pro-38 vides services for more than thirty (30) calendar days in this state in a 39 twelve (12) month period, the sign language interpreter must be licensed by 40 the board; and

41 (5) Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to apply to the activi-42 ties and services of any religious denomination or sect.

43 54-5605. SIGN LANGUAGE INTERPRETER LICENSE REQUIRED. On and after 44 July 1, 2016, a license shall be required to engage in the practice of sign 45 language interpreting. No person shall engage in the practice of or hold 46 himself out as a sign language interpreter unless he is licensed in accor-47 dance with the provisions of this chapter. No person may use in connection

1 with his name or place of business, the title sign language interpreter, 2 licensed sign language interpreter or any words, letters, abbreviations 3 or insignia indicating or implying that a person holds a sign language in-4 terpreter license, unless such person holds a sign language interpreter 5 license.

6 54-5606. BOARD -- ORGANIZATION AND MEETINGS. (1) There is hereby es-7 tablished in the department of self-governing agencies, bureau of occupa-8 tional licenses, the sign language interpreter licensing board.

9 (2) The board shall consist of five (5) members, three (3) of whom shall 10 be fully licensed sign language interpreters, two (2) of whom shall be deaf 11 or hard of hearing. All board members shall be residents of this state.

12 (3) Initial appointments to the board shall be for the following terms:
13 one (1) sign language interpreter member for a term ending in one (1) year; 14 one (1) sign language interpreter member and a deaf or hard of hearing member 15 for a term ending in two (2) years; and one (1) sign language interpreter mem-16 ber and one (1) deaf and hard of hearing member for a term ending in three (3) 17 years. Thereafter, the term of office for each member of the board shall be 18 three (3) years.

19 (4) Board members shall be appointed by the governor and shall serve at 20 the pleasure of the governor.

21 (5) Each sign language interpreter member of the board shall:

22 (a) Except for the initial appointments, be currently licensed and in 23 good standing to engage in the practice of sign language interpreting in 24 this state. The initial sign language interpreter members of the board 25 must meet the qualifications for licensure under this act; and 26 (b) At the time of appointment have been actively engaged in the prac-27 tice of sign language interpreting for at least three (3) years out of 28 the last five (5) years.

29 (6) In the event of the death, resignation or removal of any board mem-30 ber before the expiration of the term to which the member is appointed, the 31 vacancy shall be filled for the unexpired portion of the term in the same man-32 ner as the original appointment.

33 (7) The board shall meet annually and at such times as deemed necessary 34 and advisable by the chairman, or by a majority of its members, or by the gov-35 ernor. Notice of all meetings shall be given in the manner prescribed by law.
36 A majority of the board shall constitute a quorum at any meeting or hearing.

37 (8) Members of the board shall be reimbursed for expenses as provided in 38 section 59-509(b), Idaho Code.

39 54-5607. BOARD POWERS. The board shall have the following powers:

40 (1) To receive applications for licensure, determine the qualifica-41 tions of persons applying for licensure, provide licenses to applicants 42 qualified under the provisions of this chapter and reinstate and deny li-43 censes;

44 (2) To establish by rule and collect fees as prescribed by this chapter;

45 (3) To maintain records necessary to carry out its duties under this 46 chapter;

1 (4) To pass upon the qualifications and fitness of applicants for li-2 censes and to adopt rules requiring annual continuing education as a condi-3 tion for the renewal of licenses issued under this chapter;

4 (5) To prescribe by rule the minimum number of and qualifications for 5 CEUs to be required of each sign language interpreter seeking to obtain or 6 renew a license in the state of Idaho and for the approval of continuing edu-7 cation courses;

8 (6) To examine for, deny, approve, issue, revoke and suspend licenses 9 pursuant to this chapter and to conduct investigations and hearings in con-10 nection with such actions in compliance with chapter 52, title 67, Idaho 11 Code;

12 (7) To establish requirements for reinstatement and renewal of li-13 censes;

14 (8) To adopt and revise such rules as may be necessary to carry into ef-15 fect the provisions of this chapter in compliance with chapter 52, title 67, 16 Idaho Code. The rules shall include, but shall not be limited to, a code of 17 ethics for licensed sign language interpreter as well as standards of prac-18 tice;

19 (9) In any proceeding before the board authorized by this chapter, the 20 board or its designee may administer oaths or affirmations to witnesses ap-21 pearing before it;

22 (10) The board may recover the actual costs and fees, including attor-23 ney's fees, incurred by the board in the investigation and prosecution of a 24 licensee upon the finding of a violation of this chapter or a rule adopted or 25 an order issued by the board under this chapter;

26 (11) To take such action as may be necessary to enforce the provisions of 27 this chapter and to regulate the practice of a sign language interpreter;

28 (12) In a final order, the board may impose a civil penalty not to exceed 29 one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each violation by a licensee of this chap-30 ter or of rules adopted by the board; and

31 (13) To authorize, by written agreement, the bureau of occupational li-32 censes as its agent to act in its interest and, in its discretion, to contract 33 with the bureau of occupational licenses for those services deemed necessary 34 for the proper administration of this chapter.

35 54-5608. REQUIREMENTS FOR ISSUANCE OF A LICENSE. In addition to such 36 other information as the board may require by rule, each applicant under this 37 act shall:

38 (1) Submit an application in the form prescribed by the board;

39 (2) Pay the fee determined by board rule; and 40 (3) Provide evidence satisfactory to the board of having successfully 41 passed a nationally recognized competency examination approved by the board 42 or achieved certification defined by board rule.

43 (4) To obtain a license as an interpreter, an applicant must possess an 44 accepted credential as determined by the board. An initial general license 45 will be issued upon submission of an application; documentation of current 46 validation of a national/state recognized credential as approved by the 47 board; a sworn statement that the applicant has read, understands and agrees 48 to abide by the code of ethics for sign language interpreters; and payment of 1 the required nonrefundable fee pursuant to the board regulations and proce-2 dures.

3 (5) On and after July 1, 2016, a person who provides interpreting ser-4 vices in a PreK-12 educational setting must be licensed by the board. An 5 initial license must be issued upon submission of: an application; docu-6 mentation of meeting the minimum standard as defined in chapter 13, title 7 33, Idaho Code, the Idaho educational interpreter act; a sworn statement 8 that the applicant has read, understands and agrees to abide by the code of 9 ethics; and payment of the required nonrefundable fee pursuant to the board 10 rules and procedures.

11 54-5609. ENDORSEMENT LICENSURE. An applicant who satisfies the board 12 that he is licensed or registered under the laws of another state, territory 13 or jurisdiction of the United States, which in the opinion of the board im-14 poses substantially equivalent licensing requirements as this act may, upon 15 the payment of the required fee and the approval of the application, be li-16 censed by endorsement pursuant to this act.

17 54-5610. PROVISIONAL LICENSE. (1) The board may grant a person who has 18 been granted a provisional sign language interpreter license to practice 19 sign language interpreting upon filing an application with the board and 20 payment of the fee established by board rule.

21 (2) The provisional license shall be valid for one (1) year from the 22 date of its issue and may be renewed at the discretion of the board for two (2) 23 additional one (1) year periods up to a maximum of two (2) renewals for a to-24 tal provisional licensure for three (3) years. A provisional license shall 25 expire automatically upon the issuance of a full license.

26 (3) Graduates of a recognized interpreter education program may apply 27 and be granted a provisional license within one (1) year of graduation.

28 54-5611. LICENSE RENEWAL. (1) All licenses issued under the provi-29 sions of this chapter shall be subject to annual renewal and shall expire on 30 the licensee's birthday unless renewed in the manner prescribed by the board 31 regarding applications for renewal, continuing education and fees and shall 32 be done in compliance with section 67-2614, Idaho Code.

33 (2) In addition to such other requirements as the board may establish by 34 rule, each applicant must certify when seeking license renewal that in the 35 period since the license was issued or last renewed the applicant has com-36 pleted the amount of board approved continuing education required by board 37 rule. The board may waive all or a portion of these requirements or grant an 38 extension of time in which to complete these requirements upon a finding of 39 good cause.

40 54-5612. FEES. (1) The board shall establish by rule fees for licen-41 sure under the provisions of this chapter as follows:

- 42 (a) An application fee not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000);
43 (b) A fee for an initial full license not to exceed one thousand dollars 44 ($1,000);
45 (c) A fee for a provisional license and an endorsement license not to 46 exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000);

1 (d) The fee for annual renewal of licenses not to exceed one thousand 2 dollars ($1,000); and

3 (e) Fees charged pursuant to paragraph (b) or (c) of this subsection 4 shall be in addition to the application fee.

5 (2) All fees received under the provisions of this chapter shall be non-6 refundable and shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the 7 occupational license account in the dedicated fund, and all costs and ex-8 penses incurred by the board under the provisions of this chapter shall be 9 a charge against and paid from the account for such purposes, and the funds 10 collected hereunder shall be immediately available for the administration 11 of this chapter, the provisions of any other law notwithstanding.

12 54-5613. DENIAL OF LICENSE AND DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS. (1) The 13 board may refuse to issue, refuse to renew, revoke, suspend or otherwise 14 sanction a licensee upon the following grounds:

15 (a) Fraud or deception in procuring or renewing the license;

16 (b) Being found guilty, convicted, placed on probation, having entered 17 into a guilty plea that is accepted by the court, or having received a 18 withheld judgment or suspended sentence of a felony by a court of compe-19 tent jurisdiction;

20 (c) Gross incompetence or unprofessional conduct;

21 (d) Fraud or deceit in connection with services rendered as a sign lan-22 guage interpreter or in establishing qualifications for licensure un-23 der this chapter;

24 (e) Violation of any of the provisions of this chapter or any of the 25 rules promulgated by the board under the authority of this chapter;

26 (f) Failure to comply with a board order;

27 (g) Having had a license revoked, suspended or otherwise disciplined by 28 the board or the proper authorities of another state, territory or coun-29 try;

30 (h) Habitual drunkenness or addiction to habit-forming drugs, either 31 of which impair the ability to perform work without danger to himself or 32 the public;

33 (i) Aiding or abetting any person not licensed or otherwise authorized 34 under this chapter in the practice of sign language interpreting in the 35 state of Idaho;

36 (j) Having a license or certification in a related field revoked or sus-37 pended or otherwise disciplined in Idaho or any other state; or 38 (k) Unethical or unprofessional conduct as defined by board rule or the 39 code of ethics established by board rule.

40 (2) The board may reinstate any revoked or suspended license upon such 41 terms as it may determine.

42 (3) The board may by rule provide a procedure for an applicant to re-43 quest an exemption review for a felony or lesser crime conviction. The ap-44 plicant shall bear the burden and financial responsibility of providing all 45 evidence, documentation and proof of suitability for licensure required by 46 the board for exemption review.

47 54-5614. CONFIDENTIAL COMMUNICATIONS. No licensee shall disclose 48 any information they may have acquired from a client consulting with them

1 in their professional capacity that was necessary to enable them to render 2 services in their professional capacity to those persons except:

3 (1) With the written consent of that client or, in the case of death 4 or disability, the written consent of the client's personal representative, 5 other person or entity authorized to sue or the beneficiary of an insurance 6 policy on the client's life, health or physical condition;

7 (2) That a licensee shall not be required to treat as a confidential 8 communication that which reveals the contemplation or execution of a crime 9 or harmful act;

10 (3) When the client is a minor under the laws of this state, and the in-11 formation acquired by the licensee indicates that the minor was the victim or 12 subject of a crime, the licensee may testify fully in relation to such infor-13 mation upon any examination, trial or other proceeding in which the commis-14 sion of such a crime is the subject of the inquiry;

15 (4) When the client waives the privilege by bringing charges or other 16 claims against the licensee; or

17 (5) To the board or its authorized agent in connection with an investi-18 gation or other proceeding by the board or its agent under this chapter.

19 54-5615. CERTAIN ACTS PROHIBITED. It shall be unlawful and a misde-20 meanor for any person to engage in any of the following acts:

21 (1) To represent himself to be a licensed sign language interpreter 22 without having first obtained a license in compliance with the provisions of 23 this chapter;

24 (2) To practice, attempt or offer to practice sign language inter-25 preting as defined in this chapter without having at the time of so doing, a 26 valid, unexpired, unrevoked and unsuspended license issued under this chap-27 ter; or

28 (3) To use in connection with his name or place of business, the title 29 sign language interpreter, licensed sign language interpreter or any words, 30 letters, abbreviations or insignia that may reasonably be confused with a 31 designation provided by this chapter or indicating or implying that the per-32 son holds a sign language interpreting license unless he is licensed in ac-33 cordance with this chapter.

34 A hiring entity or interpreter referral service retaining services of 35 an unlicensed interpreter.
