

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

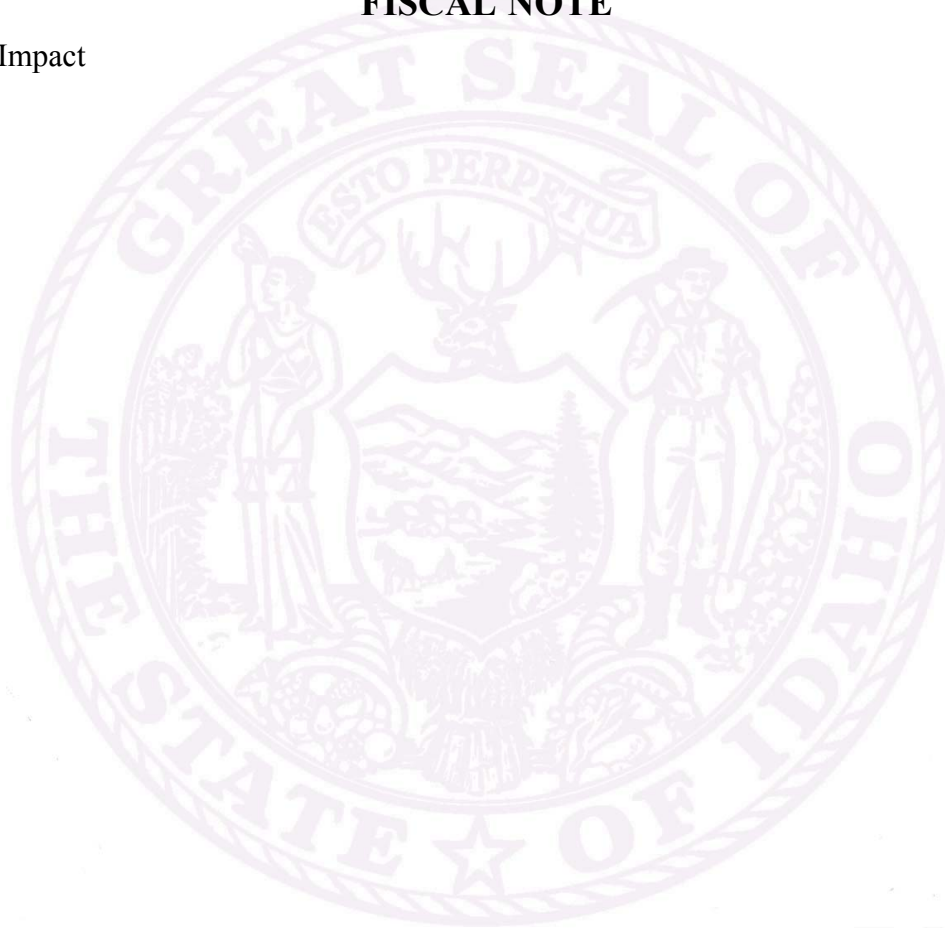

RS23679

This Memorial provides findings that genetically engineered foods contain desirable traits from nature, establishing the potential for nutritional, health, agronomic and environmental benefits, and that such foods are safe to eat and grow as foods produced without genetically engineered ingredients.

The Memorial urges Congress and the Food and Drug Administration to establish a national policy on the labeling of foods containing genetically engineered ingredients.

FISCAL NOTE

No Fiscal Impact

Contact:

Douglas R. Jones, Executive Director Growers fro Biotechnology
Representative Steven Miller
(208) 420-8100

Statement of Purpose / Fiscal Note

HJM006