Savannah Hicks spoke on behalf of H 183. Right now Idaho has one of the rates in the country with regards to human trafficking. This bill would allow victims going through our state to have a chance at getting help. The number on the signs are emergency numbers geared specifically towards human travictims. She answered the committee's questions and explained that while what they would like to see happen, it is up to the people in charge of the reto decide if the signs can be placed inside the bathrooms.	the ers put afficking it is
