

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

RS25433

This piece of legislation will clarify current language in Idaho Code that a person contracting with a dentist cannot set the rate for a procedure that is not covered by that contract. The proposed bill further defines that covered services are services that a person contracting with a dentist is liable for paying either in part or in whole.

The bill will apply to any contract which is issued after December 31, 2017. Existing contracts will be brought into compliance on the next anniversary date, renewal date or the expiration date of the applicable collective bargaining contract.

FISCAL NOTE

There is no fiscal impact to the state general fund. There is no fiscal impact on local government funds.
