5 requirements established by the council to be eligible for permanent 6 employment as an emergency communications officer; and

7 (e) Maintain permanent files and transcripts for all emergency commu-
8 nications officers certified by the council, to include only courses 9 or advanced courses of instruction successfully completed by such 10 emergency communications officers and specifically required to obtain 11 and maintain emergency communications officer certification while 12 employed in this state. Such information shall be made available by 13 the council to any employer upon the receipt of a signed waiver from 14 the emergency communications officer to release such files and tran-15 scripts.

16 (2) The council shall, upon recommendation of the Idaho public safety 17 communications commission and pursuant to the requirements of this section, 18 establish minimum basic training and certification standards for all emer-19 gency communications officers whose primary responsibility is to receive 20 and dispatch calls for emergency services in the state of Idaho, and that can 21 be completed within eighteen (18) months of employment.

22 (3) The council shall decertify any emergency communications officer 23 convicted of any felony or offense that would be a felony if committed in this 24 state. The council may decertify any emergency communications officer who:

25 (a) Is convicted of a misdemeanor;

26 (b) Willfully or otherwise falsifies or omits any information to obtain 27 any certified status; or

28 (c) Violates any of the standards of conduct as established by the coun-
29 cil's code of ethics, as adopted and amended by the council.

30 All decertification proceedings taken by the council shall be conducted 31 in accordance with chapter 52, title 67, Idaho Code.

32 (4) Any emergency communications officers who begin employment after 33 July 1, 2017, shall be trained and certified within eighteen (18) months of 34 employment. Current emergency communications officers who began employment 35 between July 1, 2012, and June 30, 2017, shall comply with the training and 36 certification provisions of this section by January 1, 2019. Current emer-
37 gency communications officers who began employment prior to July 1, 2012, 38 may comply with the training and certification provisions of this section at 39 the discretion of their employers.
