

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

RS25857

This legislation would remove the Idaho Reading Indicator from the list of assessment tools that may be used for measuring student achievement and growth. The Idaho Reading Indicator is a reading skills screener, and using it as a teacher evaluation tool presents a scenario that will possibly lead to under-identification of students needing intervention.

FISCAL NOTE

There is not a financial impact on the general fund as this is removal of language from a list of resources.
