

PASS Senate Bill 1267

A STEM Diploma is an important step in ensuring education is more aligned with business and industry needs. This will recognize a student has gone above and beyond traditional requirements and be a mark of distinction in STEM. It will provide industry and higher education a clear signal of a students' STEM knowledge and skills as well as their ability to further excel in such fields.

Dr. Lorna Finman