

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

RS26422

This proposed legislation will enable the Commission on Aging to implement rule changes allowing the Commission to provide Adult Protective Services (APS) through local area agencies on aging (AAAs) or other service providers. This proposed legislation will also amend existing terminology to conform to national common usage.

FISCAL NOTE

This legislation will have no fiscal impact. Allowing the Commission to provide APS services through additional service providers will not change the types of services provided or increase the cost of such services. In addition, amending existing terminology to conform to national common usage will not increase any costs.
