

American Rescue Plan Act of 2021 (ARPA)

16 August 2021

Janet Jessup, Analyst
Budget & Policy Analysis
Legislative Services Office

H.R. 1319 - ARP Act, Title IX

Title IX, Section 9901(b)(2). Coronavirus State Fiscal Recovery Fund

Four categories of use outlined in Section 9901

- Response to COVID-19 including economic assistance, small business, industry, and public health care
- Premium pay increase for essential workers
- Government services to make up for lost revenue
- Investments in water, sewer, and broadband

$20 billion specifically set aside for tribal governments

H.R. 1319 - ARP Act, Title IX

Title IX, Section 9901(b)(2). Capital Projects Fund

For critical capital projects directly enabling work, education, and health monitoring

$100 million specifically set aside for tribal governments

Title IX, Section 9901(b)(2). Local Assistance and Tribal Consistency Fund

For governmental purposes, excepting lobbying

$2 billion specifically set aside for tribal governments and eligible revenue sharing counties

H.R. 1319 - ARP Act, Title XI

Title XI, Section 11001. Indian Health Services

$6.1 billion for health services through the Secretary of Health & Human Services

Title XI, Section 11002. Bureau of Indian Affairs

$900 million for housing improvements, government public safety services (i.e. public safety, social services, child welfare, judiciary), potable water, administrative services

Title XI, Section 11003. Housing Assistance and Supportive Services Program for Native Americans

$750 million for Housing Block Grants (NAHASDA), Indian Community Development Block Grants, technical assistance, and administrative costs

H.R. 1319 - ARP Act, Title XI

Title XI, Section 11004. Language Preservation

$20 million for language preservation grants

Title XI, Section 11005. Bureau of Indian Education (BIE)

$850 million for BIE-funded schools and tribal colleges/universities through the Department of the Interior

Title XI, Section 11006. American Indian...Education

$190 million for tribal education agencies and eligible grant entities through the Department of Education

H.R. 1319 - ARP Act, Other considerations

Funding in other sections...

Title II

Title III

Title V

Title IX

State Appropriations

Subgrants to tribal entities

Example: Idaho Commission for Libraries

Opportunities for Partnership

Service areas

Service populations

Discussion