22 declared to exist, this act shall be in full force and effect on and after its 23 passage and approval.

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE
RS 29011

This legislation amends Idaho code by adding a definition of personal medical information that includes details of a person's medical or dental condition, including information regarding medication and vaccinations.

A new section is added that states that every person has a right to confidentiality regarding their personal medical information. Further no private or public entity shall be entitled to condition access on the revelation of personal medical information.

Health care providers who require personal medical information, such as needed to provide medical treatment, may not use that information to deny access to care.

FISCAL NOTE

This legislation is expected to have no fiscal impact on state or local governments.
