

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

RS28327 / H0103

Idaho Code was updated in both 2015 and 2019 to allow remote participation in meetings for both profit corporation shareholders and directors, as well as for non-profit corporation directors. This proposed legislation updates current law to also allow for members of a non-profit corporation to participate in meetings by remote communication to the extent authorized by the board of directors.

FISCAL NOTE

There will be no fiscal impact to the General Fund. Non-profit corporation boards of directors who voluntarily authorize the use of the remote communication may choose to purchase hardware or additional technology to facilitate remote communication for their membership.
