

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

RS30456 / H0226

The purpose of this legislation is to provide for remedies when a community college trustee no longer resides in the community college district, specify the emergency authority of the State Board of Education when action to revoke or suspend a community college's accreditation has been initiated, and to provide for the preservation of community college property.

FISCAL NOTE

There is no immediate impact to any state-appropriated fund. Should the State Board of Education assume authority under this legislation, the costs may be absorbed by current appropriation to the Office of the State Board of Education and the community college.
