

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

RS30988 / H0670

This bill prohibits health insurance providers in Idaho from issuing reimbursements for organ transplant operations performed in China or other countries known to have participated in forced organ harvesting from prisoners of conscience and other persecuted people. The bill also prohibits hospitals and medical research facilities from using genetic sequencing machines or software that come from foreign adversaries.

FISCAL NOTE

There is no estimated fiscal impact to the general fund because this legislation does not appropriate or retract funds.
