3 child has given informed consent to the treatment, except that"; in line 16, 4 following "available." insert: "Nothing in this subsection shall apply to 5 electroconvulsive therapy."; following line 16, insert:

6 "(2) Electroconvulsive therapy may be administered to a child fourteen 7 (14) years of age or older only if:

8 (a) There is informed consent by the parent, guardian, or custodian of 9 the child and all reasonable attempts have been made to contact any non-10 custodial parent with all information regarding the proposed therapy;

11 (b) The child does not object to the procedure after being informed of 12 the proposed therapy and alternatives;

13 (c) No parent, guardian, or custodian of the child objects to the pro-
14 posed therapy;

15 (d) All other accepted methods of treatment have been exhausted;
16 such treatment is necessary to save the child's life due to potential 17 suicide; or such therapy is necessary to prevent irreparable injury 18 resulting from conditions of self-harm, starvation, dehydration, or 19 physical exhaustion bordering on serious collapse, to the extent that 20 such condition is life threatening;

21 (e) The child has received thorough, independent psychiatric assess-22 ments by, and approval for the therapy from, two (2) separate american 23 board of psychiatry-certified psychiatrists specializing in child and 24 adolescent psychiatry, at least one (1) of whom shall demonstrate ad-
25 vanced certification in electroconvulsive therapy.

26 (f) The child is given a cognitive assessment that includes an assess-27 ment of memory, which shall be performed:

28 (i) Prior to administration of the therapy;

29 (ii) Immediately following termination of the therapy; and

30 (iii) Three (3) to six (6) months post administration of the ther-31 apy; and

32 (g) The therapy is performed in a facility licensed as a hospital pur-
33 suant to chapter 13, title 39, Idaho Code."

34 in line 17, delete "(2)" and insert: "~~(2)~~ (3)"; in line 21 following "treat-35 ment" insert: ", except for electroconvulsive therapy,"; in line 25, delete
