Vice Chairman Raymond called the meeting to order at 2:30 p.m.

- MOTION: Rep. Gallagher made a motion to approve the minutes of March 12, 2024. Motion carried by voice vote.
- H 712: Rep. Andrus presented H 712, legislation to introduce measures aimed at tackling the issue of stray livestock and mitigating the disturbances they may cause. By implementing these provisions, the legislation aims to enhance practices in animal husbandry and foster better relationships among neighbors.
- MOTION: Rep. Nelsen made a motion to send H 712 to the floor with a DO PASS recommendation. Motion carried by voice vote. Rep. Andrus will sponsor the bill on the floor.

Dexton Lake, Idaho Farm Bureau, Paxti Larrocea-Phillips, Idaho Cattle Association, and Sheriff Goetz spoke in support of H 712.

In response to committee questions, Mr. Larrocea-Phillips explained the fence law and the responsibility to maintain fences in the Idaho: Individuals situated on private property adjoining a federal or state fence are obligated to uphold the fence's maintenance. Should animals from a federal allotment or under a federal permit cross onto the adjacent private land, while the producer may receive notification, the responsibility to ensure the fence's upkeep lies with the private property owner. This regulation is outlined in Title 35, Chapter 102.

Vice Chairman Raymond turned the gavel over to Chairman Andrus.

T.K. Kuwahara, Idaho Beef Council, explained cattle preserve Idaho by turning inedible plants into high-quality beef and keep our views vast and open.

Dr. Erin Brooks introduced Idaho's $55 million Innovative Agriculture and Marketing Partnership. It promotes sustainable practices for key commodities, emphasizing MMRV methods, expanding markets, and highlighting carbon-related opportunities.

ADJOURN: There being no further business to come before the committee, the meeting adjourned at 3:45 p.m.
