

REVISED

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

RS31812 / H0028

This piece of legislation will merge the current Board of Examiners of Nursing Home Administrators and the Board of Examiners of Residential Care Facility Administrators into the Idaho Board of Long-Term Care Administrators. There are no changes to the regulation of either industry. Combining the boards into one Board of Long-Term Care Administrators will allow for increased efficiency of the Board.

FISCAL NOTE

This legislation will have no impact on the state's General Fund or any dedicated fund or federal fund because there is no change to any upper limit of fees which can be imposed by the Board through administrative rule.
