

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

RS32066 / S1046

This legislation requires Idaho public schools to provide human growth and development instruction for students in grades 5 through 12. The instruction will include scientifically accurate materials, such as ultrasound videos and animations, showing fetal development and the stages of human growth. The goal is to ensure students receive accurate and consistent education on human biology and development.

FISCAL NOTE

There is no increased fiscal impact to the general fund or local governments. Schools will use no cost material or existing budgets to cover any related expenses.
