

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

RS31849 / S1049

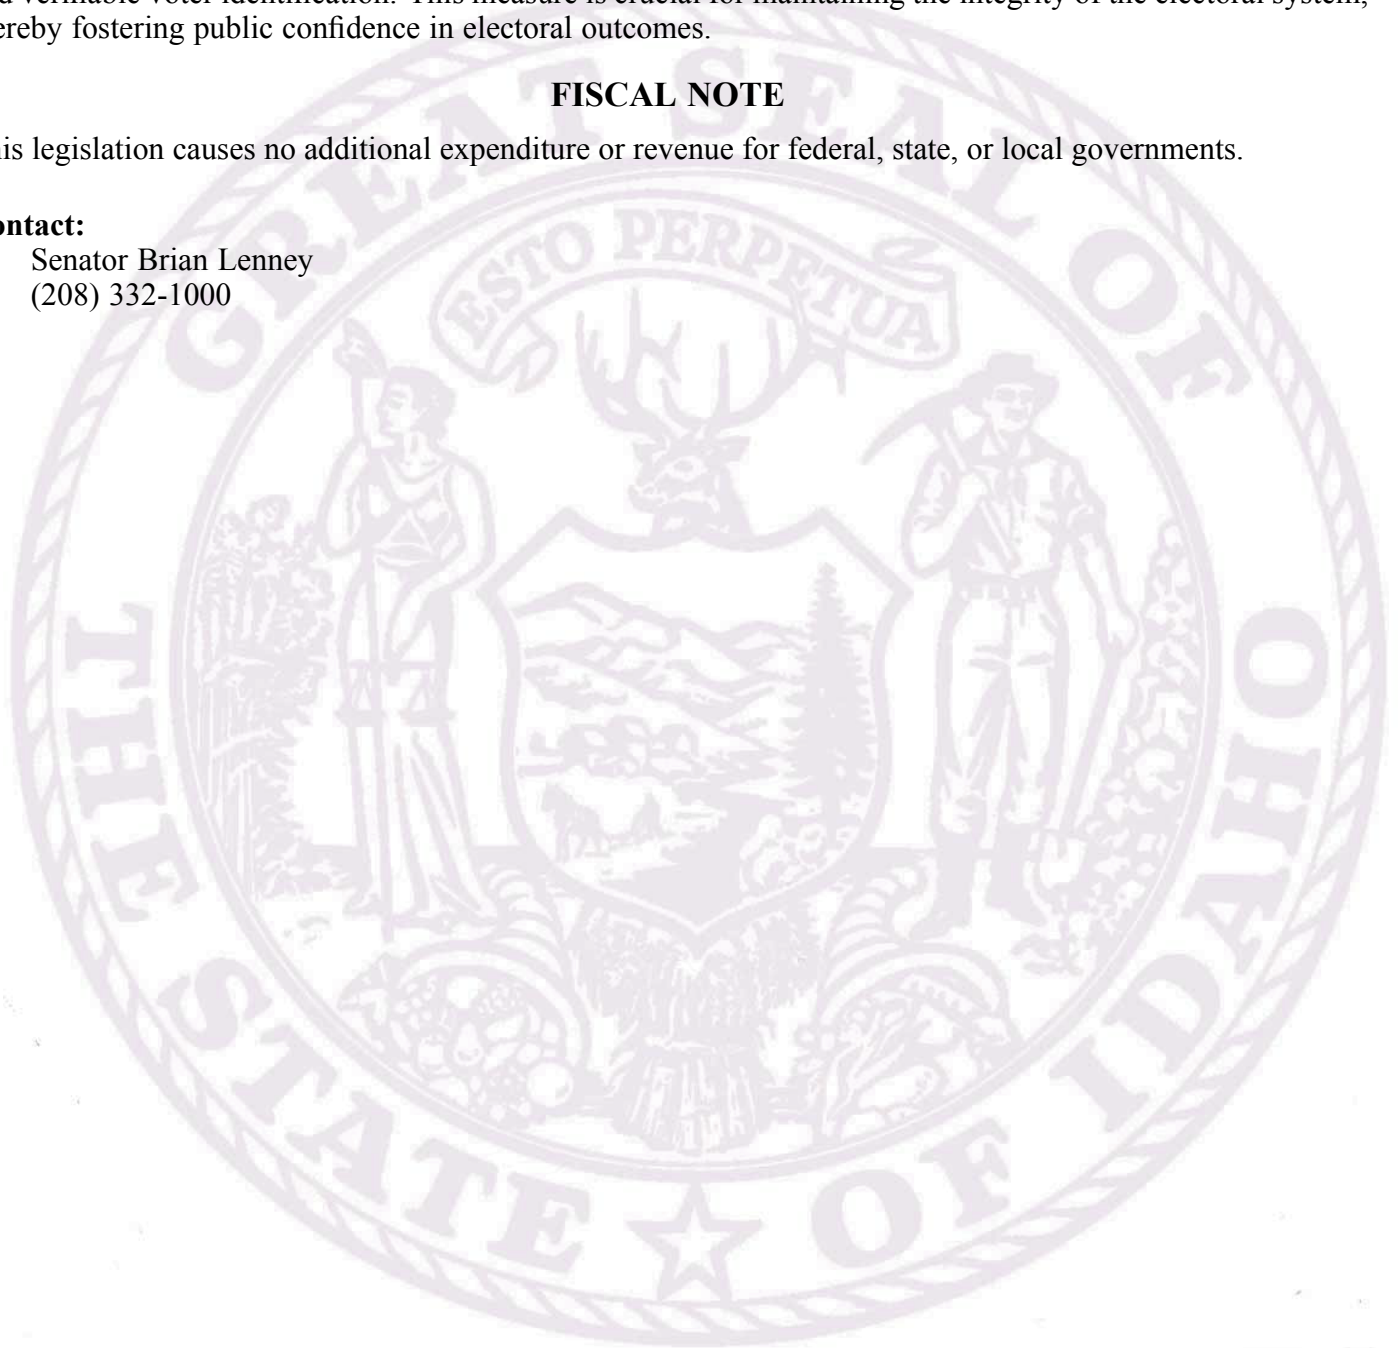

This legislation streamlines voter identification processes and enhances election security by ensuring all voters present valid, government-issued photo ID's at the time of voting. By removing the option to substitute person identification with a voter's affidavit, this bill aligns Idaho's electoral process with modern standards for secure and verifiable voter identification. This measure is crucial for maintaining the integrity of the electoral system, thereby fostering public confidence in electoral outcomes.

FISCAL NOTE

This legislation causes no additional expenditure or revenue for federal, state, or local governments.
