

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

RS33582 / S1371

This bill establishes the Idaho Student Safety and Educator Disclosure Act to improve student safety by requiring schools to follow clear, statewide disclosure rules when hiring employees. Schools must obtain information about any past misconduct, pending investigations, or resignations during investigations, and must report required matters to law enforcement. This bill promotes transparency, prevents the concealment of misconduct, and ensures accurate reporting to the Idaho Professional Standards Commission.

FISCAL NOTE

This legislation has no fiscal impact. The requirements can be carried out using existing school administrative processes and resources.
