

Florida's 287(g) Success Story

Statewide Jail-Based Cooperation In Action

In 2023, Florida enacted statewide jail-based 287(g) participation. All 67 county jails now operate under uniform standards.

What Florida Sheriffs Say

Sheriff Bill Prummell

President, Sheriffs Association.

"Strength in numbers and strong cooperation among law enforcement is crucial in keeping our communities safe."

Sheriff Grady Judd

Polk County

"This is about identifying people who are already arrested and ensuring we communicate with our federal partners"

Sheriff Bob Gualtieri

Pinellas County

"This allows us to know who is in our jail and coordinate appropriately with federal authorities."

Sheriff Wayne Ivey

Brevard County

"We are going to enforce the law. If someone is here illegally and commits a crime, they will be processed appropriately."

Sheriff T.K. Waters

Duval County

"This strengthens coordination and ensures accountability within our facilities."

Sheriff Ric Bradshaw

Palm Beach County

"This is about structured cooperation and public safety."

Why This Matters for Idaho

- ✔ Large, diverse state
- ✔ Successful statewide 287(g) implementation
- ✔ Urban & rural counties
- ✔ All sheriffs independently elected

Florida's sheriffs supported structured cooperation. Idaho can too.
