In lieu of other remedies in this section authorized, the division may, as a condition precedent to a continuance of his permit, in any case where the permittee has not theretofore given bond, exact from him a bond, written by a surety company authorized to do business in Idaho, in the penal sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000), conditioned for the faithful observance of the provisions of this act and the regulations of the division promulgated thereunder. For a violation of the conditions thereof, said bond shall be forfeited to the state of Idaho, and any recovery thereon shall be covered into the liquor fund.

Without limiting the powers of the division in the matter of revocation of permits for other cause of abuse of the privilege, the division is hereby empowered to revoke or suspend a permit of any permittee upon satisfactory proof of any of the following grounds or causes:

(a) Drunkenness or apparent drunkenness, within or without the state of Idaho.

(b) Desertion or nonsupport of family or dependents.

(c) Dependence upon public assistance or relief in any case where it appears that the purchase or consumption of intoxicating liquor by the permittee tends to deprive his family and dependents of needed subsistence.

[23-519, added 1939, ch. 222, sec. 819, p. 465; am. 2009, ch. 23, sec. 47, p. 65.]

Homemade beer, wine, mead, cider, or other fermented beverages stored pursuant to this subsection must be clearly identified by the producer and kept separate from the alcoholic beverage stock of the licensee and may not be sold or made available for sale to the general public.

(2) A licensee may not acquire any ownership interest in any homemade beer, wine, mead, cider, or other fermented beverages produced under section 23-501, Idaho Code, that are stored pursuant to this section. However, this section does not prohibit a licensee from storing homemade beer, wine, mead, cider, or other fermented beverages produced under section 23-501, Idaho Code, in conducting an organized judging, tasting, exhibition, contest, or competition of the homemade beer, wine, mead, cider, or other fermented beverages, or related events, if the homemade beer, wine, mead, cider, or other fermented beverages are stored with the licensee for that purpose.
