30-30-106. JUDICIAL RELIEF. (1) If for any reason it is impractical or impossible for any corporation to call or conduct a meeting of its members, delegates or directors, or otherwise obtain their consent, in the manner prescribed by its articles, bylaws or this act, then upon petition of a director, officer, delegate or member, the district court may order that such a meeting be called or that a written ballot or other form of obtaining the vote of members, delegates or directors be authorized, in such a manner as the court finds fair and equitable under the circumstances.

(2) The court shall, in an order issued pursuant to this section, provide for a method of notice reasonably designed to give actual notice to all persons who would be entitled to notice of a meeting held pursuant to the articles, bylaws and this act, whether or not the method results in actual notice to all such persons or conforms to the notice requirements that would otherwise apply. In a proceeding under this section the court may determine who the members or directors are.

(3) The order issued pursuant to this section may dispense with any requirements relating to the holding of or voting at meetings or obtaining votes, including any requirement as to quorums or as to the number or percentage of votes needed for approval, that would otherwise be imposed by the articles, bylaws or this act.

(4) Whenever practical, any order issued pursuant to this section shall limit the subject matter of meetings or other forms of consent authorized to items, including amendments to the articles or bylaws, the resolution of which will or may enable the corporation to continue managing its affairs without further resort to this section; provided however, that an order under this section may also authorize the obtaining of whatever votes and approvals are necessary for the dissolution, merger or sale of assets.

(5) Any meeting or other method of obtaining the vote of members, delegates or directors conducted pursuant to an order issued under this section, and that complies with all the provisions of such order, is for all purposes a valid meeting or vote, as the case may be, and shall have the same force and effect as if it complied with every requirement imposed by the articles, bylaws and this act.

(6) Any member of a cooperative association that provides electric service may apply to the district court of the county where the member's service entrance is located for a determination that the cooperative association's charges for electric service to that member are fair, just and reasonable and are not discriminatory or preferential. In the event that the court determines that the rate is not fair, just and reasonable or is discriminatory or preferential, the court shall remand the matter to the cooperative association to alter or amend the rate in conformance with the standards set forth herein.

The articles of incorporation may fix the amount and method of collection of assessments, or may authorize the board of directors to fix the amount thereof, from time to time, and may make them payable at such times or intervals, and upon such notice and by such methods as the directors may prescribe. Assessments may be made enforceable by civil action or by the forfeiture of membership, or both, or by the sale of shares of the capital stock of a stockholder in a corporation that issues shares of stock instead of memberships, when authorized by the articles of incorporation of said corporation, upon notice given in writing twenty (20) days before commencement of such action or such forfeiture. 30-30-203. INCORPORATION. (1) Unless a delayed effective date is specified, the corporate existence begins when the articles of incorporation are filed.

(a) The president and chief financial officer shall report on the activities and financial condition of the corporation; and
(b) The members shall consider and act upon such other matters as may be raised consistent with the notice requirements of section 30-30-505, Idaho Code.
(5) At regular meetings the members shall consider and act upon such matters as may be raised consistent with the notice requirements of section 30-30-505, Idaho Code.
(6) The failure to hold an annual or regular meeting at a time stated in or fixed in accordance with a corporation's bylaws does not affect the validity of any corporate action.

[30-30-501, added 2015, ch. 243, sec. 78, p. 977.]

30-30-502. SPECIAL MEETING. (1) A corporation with members shall hold a special meeting of members:
(a) On call of its board or the person or persons authorized to do so by the articles or bylaws; or
(b) Except as provided in the articles or bylaws of a religious corporation if the holders of at least ten percent (10%) of the voting power of any corporation sign, date and deliver to any corporate officer one (1) or more written demands for the meeting describing the purpose or purposes for which it is to be held.

(2) The close of business on the thirtieth day before delivery of the demand or demands for a special meeting to any corporate officer is the record date for the purpose of determining whether the ten percent (10%) requirement of subsection (1) of this section has been met.

(3) If a notice for a special meeting demanded under subsection (1)(b) of this section is not given pursuant to section 30-30-505, Idaho Code, within thirty (30) days after the date the written demand or demands are delected to a corporate officer, regardless of the requirements of subsection
(4) of this section, a person signing the demand or demands may set the time and place of the meeting and give notice pursuant to section 30-30-505, Idaho Code.

(4) Special meetings of members may be held in or out of this state at the place stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws. If no place is stated or fixed in accordance with the bylaws, special meetings shall be held at the corporation's principal office.

(5) Only those matters that are within the purpose or purposes described in the meeting notice required in section 30-30-505, Idaho Code, may be conducted at a special meeting of members.

[30-30-502, added 2015, ch. 243, sec. 78, p. 978.]

30-30-503. COURT-ORDERED MEETINGS. (1) The district court of the county where a corporation's principal office is located or, if none in this state, Ada county, may summarily order a meeting to be held:

(a) On application of any member or other person entitled to participate in an annual or regular meeting, if an annual meeting was not held within the earlier of six (6) months after the end of the corporation's fiscal year or fifteen (15) months after its last annual meeting; or

(b) On application of any member or other person entitled to participate in a regular meeting, if a regular meeting is not held within forty (40) days after the date it was required to be held; or

(c) On application of a member who signed a demand for a special meeting valid under section 30-30-502, Idaho Code, a person or persons entitled to call a special meeting, if:

(i) Notice of the special meeting was not given within thirty (30) days after the date the demand was delivered to a corporate officer; or

(ii) The special meeting was not held in accordance with the notice.

(2) The court may fix the time and place of the meeting, specify a record date for determining members entitled to notice of and to vote at the meeting, prescribe the form and content of the meeting notice, fix the quorum required for specific matters to be considered at the meeting, or direct that the votes represented at the meeting constitute a quorum for action on those matters, and enter other orders necessary to accomplish the purpose or purposes of the meeting.

(3) If the court orders a meeting, it may also order the corporation to pay the member's costs, including reasonable attorney's fees, incurred to obtain the order.

[30-30-503, added 2015, ch. 243, sec. 78, p. 978.]
30-30-504. ACTION BY WRITTEN CONSENT. (1) Unless limited or prohibited by the articles or bylaws, action required or permitted by this act to be approved by the members may be approved without a meeting of members if the action is approved by members holding at least eighty percent (80%) of the voting power. The action must be evidenced by one (1) or more written consents describing the action taken, signed by those members representing at least eighty percent (80%) of the voting power, and delivered to the corporation for inclusion in the minutes or filing with the corporate records.

(2) If not otherwise determined under section 30-30-503 or 30-30-507, Idaho Code, the record date for determining members entitled to take action without a meeting is the date the first member signs the consent under subsection (1) of this section.

(3) A consent signed under this section has the effect of a meeting vote and may be described as such in any document filed with the secretary of state.

(4) Written notice of member approval pursuant to this section shall be given to all members who have not signed the written consent. If written notice is required, member approval pursuant to this section shall be effective ten (10) days after such written notice is given.

[30-30-504, added 2015, ch. 243, sec. 78, p. 979.]

30-30-505. NOTICE OF MEETING. (1) A corporation shall give notice consistent with its bylaws of meetings of members in a fair and reasonable manner.

(2) Any notice that conforms to the requirements of subsection (3) of this section is fair and reasonable, but other means of giving notice may also be fair and reasonable when all the circumstances are considered; provided however, that notice of matters referred to in subsection (3) (b) of this section must be given as provided in subsection (3) of this section.

(3) Notice is fair and reasonable if:

(a) The corporation notifies its members of the place, date, and time of each annual, regular and special meeting of members no fewer than ten (10) days, or if notice is mailed by other than first class or registered mail, thirty (30) days, nor more than sixty (60) days before the meeting date;

(b) Notice of an annual or regular meeting includes a description of any matters or matters that must be approved by the members under section 30-22-203, 30-22-303, 30-22-403, 30-22-503, 30-30-619, 30-30-626, 30-30-703, 30-30-709, 30-30-903 or 30-30-1003, Idaho Code; and

(c) Notice of a special meeting includes a description of the matter or matters for which the meeting is called.

(4) Unless the bylaws require otherwise, if an annual, regular or special meeting of members is adjourned to a different date, time or place, notice need not be given of the new date, time or place, if the new date, time or place is announced at the meeting before adjournment. If a new record date for the adjourned meeting is or must be fixed under section 30-30-507, Idaho Code, however, notice of the adjourned meeting must be given under this section to the members of record as of the new record date.

(5) When giving notice of an annual, regular or special meeting of members, a corporation shall give notice of a matter a member intends to raise at the meeting if:

(a) Requested in writing to do so by a person entitled to call a special meeting; and
(b) The request is received by the secretary or president of the corporation at least ten (10) days before the corporation gives notice of the meeting.

[30-30-505, added 2015, ch. 243, sec. 78, p. 979.]

30-30-506. WAIVER OF NOTICE. (1) A member may waive any notice required in this act, the articles or bylaws before or after the date and time stated in the notice. The waiver must be in writing, be signed by the member entitled to the notice, and be delivered to the corporation for inclusion in the minutes or filing with the corporate records.

(2) A member's attendance at a meeting:
   (a) Waives objection to lack of notice or defective notice of the meeting, unless the member at the beginning of the meeting objects to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting; or
   (b) Waives objection to consideration of a particular matter at the meeting that is not within the purpose or purposes described in the meeting notice, unless the member objects to considering the matter when it is presented.

[30-30-506, added 2015, ch. 243, sec. 78, p. 980.]

30-30-507. RECORD DATE -- DETERMINING MEMBERS ENTITLED TO NOTICE AND VOTE. (1) The bylaws of a corporation may fix or provide the manner of fixing a date as the record date for determining the members entitled to notice of a members' meeting. If the bylaws do not fix or provide for fixing such a record date, the board may fix a future date as such a record date. If no such record date is fixed, members at the close of business on the business day preceding the day on which notice is given, or if notice is waived, at the close of business on the business day preceding the day on which the meeting is held, are entitled to notice of the meeting.

(2) The bylaws of a corporation may fix or provide the manner of fixing a date as the record date for determining the members entitled to vote at a members' meeting. If the bylaws do not fix or provide for fixing such a record date, the board may fix a future date as such a record date. If no such record date is fixed, members on the date of the meeting who are otherwise eligible to vote are entitled to vote at the meeting.

(3) The bylaws may fix or provide the manner for determining a date as the record date for the purpose of determining the members entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any other lawful action. If the bylaws do not fix or provide for fixing such a record date, the board may fix in advance such a record date. If no such record date is fixed, members at the close of business on the day on which the board adopts the resolution relating thereto, or the sixtieth day prior to the date of such other action, whichever is later, are entitled to exercise such rights.

(4) A record date fixed under this section may not be more than seventy (70) days before the meeting or action requiring a determination of members occurs.

(5) A determination of members entitled to notice of or to vote at a membership meeting is effective for any adjournment of the meeting unless the board fixes a new date for determining the right to notice or the right to vote, which it must do if the meeting is adjourned to a date more than seventy (70) days after the record date for determining members entitled to notice of the original meeting.
(6) If a court orders a meeting adjourned to a date more than one hundred twenty (120) days after the date fixed for the original meeting, it may provide that the original record date for notice or voting continues in effect or it may fix a new record date for notice or voting.

[30-30-507, added 2015, ch. 243, sec. 78, p. 980.]

30-30-508. ACTION BY MAILED WRITTEN BALLOT OR ABSENTEE BALLOT. (1) Unless prohibited or limited by the articles or bylaws, any action that may be taken at any annual, regular or special meeting of members may be taken without a meeting if the corporation delivers a written ballot to every member entitled to vote on the matter. The articles or bylaws may provide that the members may vote by mail or by absentee ballot on any corporate action that may be taken at any annual, regular or special meeting of members.

(2) A written ballot for action taken without a meeting shall:
   (a) Set forth each proposed action; and
   (b) Provide an opportunity to vote for or against each proposed action.

(3) Approval by written ballot alone pursuant to this section when a meeting is not held shall be valid only when the number of votes cast by ballot equals or exceeds the quorum required to be present at a meeting authorizing the action and when the number of approvals equals or exceeds the number of votes that would be required to approve the matter at a meeting at which the total number of votes cast was the same as the number of votes cast by ballot.

(4) All solicitations for votes by written ballot shall:
   (a) Indicate the number of responses needed to meet the quorum requirements;
   (b) State the percentage of approvals necessary to approve each matter other than election of directors; and
   (c) Specify the time by which a ballot must be received by the corporation in order to be counted.

(5) Except as otherwise provided in the articles or bylaws, a written ballot may not be revoked.

[30-30-508, added 2015, ch. 243, sec. 78, p. 981.]

30-30-509. MEMBERS' LIST FOR MEETING. (1) After fixing a record date for a notice of a meeting, a corporation shall prepare an alphabetical list of the names of all its members who are entitled to notice of the meeting. The list must show the address and number of votes each member is entitled to vote at the meeting. The corporation shall prepare on a current basis through the time of the membership meeting a list of members, if any, who are entitled to vote at the meeting but not entitled to notice of the meeting. This list shall be prepared on the same basis and be part of the list of members.

(2) The list of members must be available for inspection by any member for the purpose of communication with other members concerning the meeting, beginning two (2) business days after notice is given of the meeting for which the list was prepared and continuing through the meeting, at the corporation's principal office or at a reasonable place identified in the meeting notice in the city where the meeting will be held. A member or a member's agent or attorney is entitled on written demand to inspect and, subject to the limitations of sections 30-30-1102(3) and 30-30-1104, Idaho Code, to copy the list, at a reasonable time and at the member's expense, during the period it is available for inspection.
(3) The corporation shall make the list of members available at the meeting, and any member or a member's agent or attorney is entitled to inspect the list at any time during the meeting or any adjournment.

(4) If the corporation refuses to allow a member or a member's agent or attorney to inspect the list of members before or at the meeting or copy the list as permitted by subsection (2) of this section, the district court of the county where a corporation's principal office is located, or if none in this state, Ada county, on application of the member, may summarily order the inspection or copying at the corporation's expense and may postpone the meeting for which the list was prepared until the inspection or copying is complete and may order the corporation to pay the member's costs, including reasonable attorney's fees, incurred to obtain the order.

(5) Unless a written demand to inspect and copy a membership list has been made under subsection (2) of this section prior to the membership meeting and a corporation improperly refuses to comply with the demand, refusal or failure to comply with this section does not affect the validity of action taken at the meeting.

(6) The articles or bylaws of a religious corporation may limit or abolish the rights of a member under this section to inspect and copy any corporate record.

[30-30-509, added 2015, ch. 243, sec. 78, p. 981.]

30-30-510. VOTING ENTITLEMENT GENERALLY. (1) Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, each member is entitled to one (1) vote on each matter voted on by the members, or by one (1) vote for each share of stock in a corporation that issues shares of stock instead of memberships, when authorized by the articles of incorporation of said corporation.

(2) Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, if a membership stands of record in the names of two (2) or more persons, their acts with respect to voting shall have the following effect:

(a) If only one (1) votes, such act binds all; and

(b) If more than one (1) votes, the vote shall be divided on a pro rata basis.

[30-30-510, added 2015, ch. 243, sec. 78, p. 982.]

30-30-511. QUORUM REQUIREMENTS. (1) Unless this act, the articles or bylaws provide for a higher or lower quorum, ten percent (10%) of the votes entitled to be cast on a matter must be represented in person, by proxy, by mailed written ballot or by absentee ballot at a meeting of members to constitute a quorum on that matter.

(2) A bylaw amendment to decrease the quorum for any member action may be approved by the members or, unless prohibited by the bylaws, by the board.

(3) A bylaw amendment to increase the quorum required for any member action must be approved by the members.

(4) Unless one-third (1/3) or more of the voting power is present in person, by proxy, by mailed written ballot or by absentee ballot, the only matters that may be voted upon at an annual or regular meeting of members are those matters that are described in the meeting notice.

[30-30-511, added 2015, ch. 243, sec. 78, p. 982.]
30-30-512. VOTING REQUIREMENTS. (1) Unless this act, the articles or the bylaws require a greater vote or voting by class, if a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of the votes represented and voting, which affirmative votes also constitute a majority of the required quorum, is the act of the members.

(2) A bylaw amendment to increase or decrease the vote required for any member action must be approved by the members.

[30-30-512, added 2015, ch. 243, sec. 78, p. 982.]

30-30-513. PROXIES. (1) Unless the articles or bylaws prohibit or limit proxy voting, a member may appoint a proxy to vote or otherwise act for the member by signing an appointment form either personally or by an attorney-in-fact.

(2) An appointment of a proxy is effective when received by the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes. An appointment is valid for eleven (11) months unless a different period is expressly provided in the appointment form; provided however, that no proxy shall be valid for more than three (3) years from its date of execution.

(3) An appointment of a proxy is revocable by the member.

(4) The death or incapacity of the member appointing a proxy does not affect the right of the corporation to accept the proxy's authority unless notice of the death or incapacity is received by the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes before the proxy exercises authority under the appointment.

(5) Appointment of a proxy is revoked by the person appointing the proxy:

(a) Attending any meeting and voting in person; or
(b) Signing and delivering to the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate proxy votes either a written statement that the appointment of the proxy is revoked or a subsequent appointment form.

(6) Subject to section 30-30-516, Idaho Code, and any express limitation on the proxy's authority appearing on the face of the appointment form, a corporation is entitled to accept the proxy's vote or other action as that of the member making the appointment.

(7) The articles or bylaws of a corporation may prescribe reasonable conditions under which proxy voting may be exercised.

[30-30-513, added 2015, ch. 243, sec. 78, p. 982.]

30-30-514. CUMULATIVE VOTING FOR DIRECTORS. (1) If the articles or bylaws specifically provide for cumulative voting by members, members may so vote by multiplying the number of votes the members are entitled to cast by the number of directors for whom they are entitled to vote, and cast the product for a single candidate or distribute the product among two (2) or more candidates.

(2) Cumulative voting is not authorized at a particular meeting unless:

(a) The meeting notice or statement accompanying the notice states that cumulative voting will take place; or
(b) A member gives notice during the meeting and before the vote is taken of the member's intent to cumulate votes, and if one (1) member gives this notice all other members participating in the election are entitled to cumulate their votes without giving further notice.
(3) A director elected by cumulative voting may be removed by the members without cause if the requirements of section 30-30-608, Idaho Code, are met unless the votes cast against removal, or not consenting in writing to such removal, would be sufficient to elect such director if voted cumulatively at an election at which the same total number of votes were cast, or, if such action is taken by written ballot, all memberships entitled to vote were voted, and the entire number of directors authorized at the time of the director's most recent election were then being elected.

(4) Members may not cumulatively vote if the directors and members are identical.

[30-30-514, added 2015, ch. 243, sec. 78, p. 983.]

30-30-515. OTHER METHODS OF ELECTING DIRECTORS. A corporation may provide in its articles or bylaws for election of directors by members or delegates:

(1) On the basis of chapter or other organizational unit;

(2) By region or other geographic unit, including voting district and, in respect to each such voting district, the articles or bylaws shall describe the boundaries thereof and designate the number of directors that shall be elected by the members residing therein;

(3) By preferential voting; or

(4) By any other reasonable method.

[30-30-515, added 2015, ch. 243, sec. 78, p. 983.]

30-30-516. CORPORATION'S ACCEPTANCE OF VOTES. (1) If the name signed on a vote, consent, waiver or proxy appointment corresponds to the name of a member, the corporation, if acting in good faith, is entitled to accept the vote, consent, waiver or proxy appointment and give it effect as the act of the member.

(2) If the name signed on a vote, consent, waiver or proxy appointment does not correspond to the record name of a member, the corporation, if acting in good faith, is nevertheless entitled to accept the vote, consent, waiver or proxy appointment and give it effect as the act of the member if:

(a) The member is an entity and the name signed purports to be that of an officer or agent of the entity;

(b) The name signed purports to be that of an attorney-in-fact of the member and if the corporation requests, evidence acceptable to the corporation of the signatory's authority to sign for the member has been presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver or proxy appointment;

(c) Two (2) or more persons hold the membership as cotenants or fiduciaries and the name signed purports to be the name of at least one (1) of the cotenants and the person signing appears to be acting on behalf of all the cotenants; and

(d) If:

(i) The name signed purports to be that of an administrator, executor, guardian or conservator representing the member and, if the corporation requests, evidence of fiduciary status acceptable to the corporation has been presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver or proxy appointment;

(ii) The name signed purports to be that of a receiver or trustee in bankruptcy of the member, and, if the corporation requests, evidence of this status acceptable to the corporation has been presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver or proxy appointment.

(3) The corporation is entitled to reject a vote, consent, waiver or proxy appointment if the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes, acting in good faith, has reasonable basis for doubt about the validity of the signature on it or about the signatory's authority to sign for the member.

(4) The corporation and its officer or agent who accepts or rejects a vote, consent, waiver or proxy appointment in good faith and in accordance with the standards of this section are not liable in damages to the member for the consequences of the acceptance or rejection.

(5) Corporate action based on the acceptance or rejection of a vote, consent, waiver or proxy appointment under this section is valid unless a court of competent jurisdiction determines otherwise.

(6) Contested elections shall be referred to the board of directors, which shall, after reviewing all ballots, proxies, reports of election inspectors or judges, and any other relevant documents or materials, certify the results of the election. In the case of a tie vote between candidates, the tie shall be determined by a toss of a coin. If allowed by the bylaws of the corporation, the board of directors shall have the power to call a new election if, after reviewing all relevant documents and information, the board of directors is unable to certify the results of the election.

[30-30-516, added 2015, ch. 243, sec. 78, p. 983.]

30-30-517. VOTING AGREEMENTS. (1) If the articles or bylaws specifically allow for voting agreements, two (2) or more members may provide for the manner in which they will vote by signing an agreement for that purpose. Such agreements may be valid for a period of up to ten (10) years.

(2) A voting agreement created under this section is specifically enforceable.

[30-30-517, added 2015, ch. 243, sec. 78, p. 984.]

PART 6
DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

30-30-601. REQUIREMENT FOR AND DUTIES OF BOARD. (1) Each corporation must have a board of directors.

(2) Except as provided in this act or subsection (3) of this section, all corporate powers shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the affairs of the corporation managed under the direction of, its board.

(3) The articles may authorize a person or persons to exercise some or all of the powers that would otherwise be exercised by a board. To the extent so authorized, any such person or persons shall have the duties and responsibilities of the directors, and the directors shall be relieved to that extent from such duties and responsibilities.

30-30-602. QUALIFICATIONS OF DIRECTORS. All directors must be individuals. If the corporation is a cooperative, all directors must be members of the corporation, provided, that unless otherwise provided in the bylaws, a person who has the right to vote on behalf of an entity that is a member of the corporation may serve as a director. The articles or bylaws may prescribe other qualifications for directors.

[30-30-602, added 2015, ch. 243, sec. 79, p. 985.]

30-30-603. NUMBER OF DIRECTORS. (1) The board of directors must consist of three (3) or more individuals, with the number specified in or fixed in accordance with the articles or bylaws. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the board of directors of a religious corporation must consist of at least one
(1) individual, with the number specified in or fixed in accordance with the articles or bylaws.

(2) The number of directors may be increased or decreased within the limitations contained in subsection (1) of this section from time to time by amendment to or in the manner prescribed in the articles or bylaws.

[30-30-603, added 2015, ch. 243, sec. 79, p. 985.]

30-30-604. ELECTION, DESIGNATION AND APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTORS. (1) If the corporation has members, all the directors, except the initial directors, shall be elected at the first annual meeting of members, and at each annual meeting thereafter, unless the articles or bylaws provide some other time or method of election, or provide that some of the directors are appointed by some other person or designated.

(2) If the corporation does not have members, all the directors, except the initial directors, shall be elected, appointed or designated as provided in the articles or bylaws. If no method of designation or appointment is set forth in the articles or bylaws, the directors, other than the initial directors, shall be elected by the board.

[30-30-604, added 2015, ch. 243, sec. 79, p. 985.]

30-30-605. TERMS OF DIRECTORS GENERALLY. (1) The articles or bylaws must specify the terms of directors. Except for designated or appointed directors, the terms of directors may not exceed five (5) years. In the absence of any term specified in the articles or bylaws, the term of each director shall be one (1) year. Directors may be elected for successive terms.

(2) A decrease in the number of directors or term of office does not shorten an incumbent director's term.

(3) Except as provided in the articles or bylaws:
(a) The term of a director filling a vacancy in the office of a director elected by members expires at the next election of directors by members; and
(b) The term of a director filling any other vacancy expires at the end of the unexpired term that such director is filling.
(4) Despite the expiration of a director's term, the director continues to serve until the director's successor is elected, designated or appointed, and qualifies, or until there is a decrease in the number of directors.

[30-30-605, added 2015, ch. 243, sec. 79, p. 985.]

30-30-606. STAGGERED TERMS FOR DIRECTORS. The articles or bylaws may provide for staggering the terms of directors by dividing the total number of directors into groups. The terms of office of the several groups need not be uniform.

[30-30-606, added 2015, ch. 243, sec. 79, p. 985.]

30-30-607. RESIGNATION OF DIRECTORS. (1) A director may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the board of directors, its presiding officer or to the president or secretary.

(2) A resignation is effective when the notice is effective unless the notice specifies a future effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a future date, the board may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the board provides that the successor does not take office until the effective date.

30-30-608. REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS ELECTED BY MEMBERS OR DIRECTORS. (1) The members may remove one (1) or more directors elected by them without cause.

(2) If a director is elected by a class, chapter or other organizational unit or by region or other geographic grouping, the director may be removed only by the members of that class, chapter, unit or grouping.

(3) Except as provided in subsection (9) of this section, a director may be removed under subsection (1) or (2) of this section only if the number of votes cast to remove the director would be sufficient to elect the director at a meeting to elect directors.

(4) If cumulative voting is authorized, a director may not be removed if the number of votes sufficient to elect the director under cumulative voting is voted against the director's removal, or if the director was elected by a class, chapter, unit or grouping of members, a director may not be removed if the number of votes sufficient to elect the director by that class, chapter, unit or grouping is voted against the director's removal.

(5) A director elected by members may be removed by the members only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing the director and the meeting notice must state that the purpose, or one (1) of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the director.

(6) In computing whether a director is protected from removal under subsections (2) through (4) of this section, it should be assumed that the votes against removal are cast in an election for the number of directors of the class to which the director to be removed belonged on the date of that director's election.

(7) An entire board of directors may be removed under subsections (1) through (5) of this section.

(8) A director elected by the board may be removed without cause by the vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the directors then in office or such greater number as is set forth in the articles or bylaws; provided however, that a director elected by the board to fill the vacancy of a director elected by the members may be removed without cause by the members, but not the board.

(9) If, at the beginning of a director's term on the board, the articles or bylaws provide that the director may be removed for missing a specified number of board meetings, the board may remove the director for failing to attend the specified number of meetings. The director may be removed only if a majority of the directors then in office vote for the removal.

(10) The articles or bylaws of a religious corporation may:
(a) Limit the application of this section; and
(b) Set forth the vote and procedures by which the board or any person may remove with or without cause a director elected by the members or the board.

[30-30-608, added 2015, ch. 243, sec. 79, p. 986.]

30-30-609. REMOVAL OF DESIGNATED OR APPOINTED DIRECTORS. (1) A designated director may be removed by an amendment to the articles or bylaws deleting or changing the designation.
(2) Appointed directors:
(a) Except as otherwise provided in the articles or bylaws, an appointed director may be removed without cause by the person appointing the director;
(b) The person removing the director shall do so by giving written notice of the removal to the director and either the presiding officer of the board or the corporation's president or secretary; and
(c) A removal is effective when the notice is effective unless the notice specifies a future effective date.

[30-30-609, added 2015, ch. 243, sec. 79, p. 986.]

30-30-610. VACANCY ON BOARD. (1) Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, and except as provided in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, if a vacancy occurs on a board of directors, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors:
(a) The members, if any, may fill the vacancy. If the vacant office was held by a director elected by a class, chapter or other organizational unit or by region or other geographic grouping, only members of the class, chapter, unit or grouping are entitled to vote to fill the vacancy if it is filled by the members;
(b) The board of directors may fill the vacancy; or
(c) If the directors remaining in office constitute fewer than a quorum of the board, they may fill the vacancy by the affirmative vote of a majority of all the directors remaining in office.
(2) Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, if a vacant office was held by an appointed director, only the person who appointed the director may fill the vacancy.
(3) If a vacant office was held by a designated director, the vacancy shall be filled as provided in the articles or bylaws. In the absence of an applicable article or bylaw provision, the vacancy may not be filled by the board.
(4) A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date, by reason of a resignation effective at a later date under section 30-30-607(2), Idaho Code, or otherwise, may be filled before the vacancy occurs but the new director may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

[30-30-610, added 2015, ch. 243, sec. 79, p. 987.]

30-30-611. COMPENSATION OF DIRECTORS. Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, a board of directors may fix the compensation, fees, insurance or benefits, if any, of directors.

[30-30-611, added 2015, ch. 243, sec. 79, p. 987.]
30-30-612. REGULAR AND SPECIAL MEETINGS. (1) If the time and place of a directors' meeting is fixed by the bylaws or the board, the meeting is a regular meeting. All other meetings are special meetings.

(2) A board of directors may hold regular or special meetings in or out of this state.

(3) Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, a board may permit any or all directors to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all directors participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A director participating in a meeting by this means is deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

[30-30-612, added 2015, ch. 243, sec. 79, p. 987.]

30-30-613. ACTION WITHOUT MEETING. (1) Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, action required or permitted by this act to be taken at a board of directors' meeting may be taken without a meeting if the action is taken by all members of the board. The action must be evidenced by one (1) or more written consents describing the action taken, signed by each director, and included in the minutes filed with the corporate records reflecting the action taken.

(2) Action taken under this section is effective when the last director signs the consent, unless the consent specifies a different effective date.

(3) A consent signed under this section has the effect of a meeting vote and may be described as such in any document.

[30-30-613, added 2015, ch. 243, sec. 79, p. 987.]

30-30-614. CALL AND NOTICE OF MEETINGS. (1) Unless the articles, bylaws or subsection (3) of this section provides otherwise, regular meetings of the board may be held without notice.

(2) Unless the articles, bylaws or subsection (3) of this section provides otherwise, special meetings of the board must be preceded by at least two (2) days' notice to each director of the date, time, and place, but not the purpose, of the meeting.

(3) In corporations without members, any board action to remove a director or to approve a matter that would require approval by the members if the corporation had members shall not be valid unless each director is given at least seven (7) days' written notice that the matter will be voted upon at a directors' meeting or unless notice is waived pursuant to section 30-30-615, Idaho Code.

(4) Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, the presiding officer of the board, the president or twenty percent (20%) of the directors then in office may call and give notice of a meeting of the board.

30-30-615. WAIVER OF NOTICE. (1) A director may, at any time before, during or after the meeting, waive any notice required by this act, the articles or bylaws. Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, the waiver must be in writing, signed by the director entitled to the notice, and filed with the minutes or the corporate records.

(2) A director's attendance at or participation in a meeting waives any required notice of the meeting unless the director upon arriving at the meeting or prior to the vote on a matter not noticed in conformity with this act, the articles or bylaws objects to lack of notice and does not thereafter vote for or assent to the objected to action.

[30-30-615, added 2015, ch. 243, sec. 79, p. 988.]

30-30-616. QUORUM AND VOTING. (1) Except as otherwise provided in this act, the articles or bylaws, a quorum of a board of directors consists of a majority of the directors in office immediately before a meeting begins. In no event may the articles or bylaws authorize a quorum of fewer than the greater of one-third (1/3) of the number of directors in office or two (2) directors.

(2) If a quorum is present when a vote is taken, the affirmative vote of a majority of directors present is the act of the board unless this act, the articles or bylaws require the vote of a greater number of directors.

[30-30-616, added 2015, ch. 243, sec. 79, p. 988.]

30-30-617. COMMITTEES OF THE BOARD. (1) Unless prohibited or limited by the articles or bylaws, a board of directors may create one (1) or more committees of the board and appoint members of the board to serve on them. Each committee shall have two (2) or more directors, who serve at the pleasure of the board.

(2) The creation of a committee and appointment of members to it must be approved by the greater of:
   (a) A majority of all the directors in office when the action is taken; or
   (b) The number of directors required by the articles or bylaws to take action under section 30-30-616, Idaho Code.

(3) Sections 30-30-612 through 30-30-616, Idaho Code, which govern meetings, action without meetings, notice and waiver of notice, and quorum and voting requirements of the board, apply to committees of the board and their members as well.

(4) To the extent specified by the board of directors or in the articles or bylaws, each committee of the board may exercise the board's authority under section 30-30-601, Idaho Code.

(5) A committee of the board may not, however:
   (a) Authorize distributions;
   (b) Approve or recommend to members dissolution, merger, or the sale, pledge or transfer of all or substantially all of the corporation's assets;
   (c) Elect, appoint or remove directors or fill vacancies on the board or on any of its committees; or
   (d) Adopt, amend or repeal the articles or bylaws.

(6) The creation of, delegation of authority to, or action by a committee does not alone constitute compliance by a director with the standards of conduct described in section 30-30-618, Idaho Code.

[30-30-617, added 2015, ch. 243, sec. 79, p. 988.]

30-30-618. GENERAL STANDARDS FOR DIRECTORS. (1) A director shall discharge his duties as a director, including his duties as a member of a committee:

(a) In good faith;
(b) With the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances; and
(c) In a manner the director reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation.

(2) In discharging his duties, a director is entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, if prepared or presented by:
(a) One (1) or more officers or employees of the corporation whom the director reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented;
(b) Legal counsel, public accountants or other persons as to matters the director reasonably believes are within the person's professional or expert competence;
(c) A committee of the board of which the director is not a member, as to matters within its jurisdiction, if the director reasonably believes the committee merits confidence; or
(d) In the case of religious corporations, religious authorities and ministers, priests, rabbis or other persons whose position or duties in the religious organization the director believes justify reliance and confidence and whom the director believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented.

(3) A director is not acting in good faith if the director has knowledge concerning the matter in question that makes reliance otherwise permitted by subsection (2) of this section unwarranted.

(4) A director is not liable to the corporation, any member, or any other person for any action taken or not taken as a director, if the director acted in compliance with this section.

(5) A director shall not be deemed to be a trustee with respect to the corporation or with respect to any property held or administered by the corporation, including, without limit, property that may be subject to restrictions imposed by the donor or transferor of such property.

[30-30-618, added 2015, ch. 243, sec. 79, p. 989.]

30-30-619. DIRECTOR -- CONFLICT OF INTEREST. (1) A conflict of interest transaction is a transaction with the corporation in which a director of the corporation has a direct or indirect interest. A conflict of interest transaction is not voidable or the basis for imposing liability on the director if the transaction was fair at the time it was entered into or is approved as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(2) A transaction in which a director of a corporation has a conflict of interest may be approved if:
(a) The material facts of the transaction and the director's interest were disclosed or known to the board of directors or a committee of the board and the board or committee of the board authorized, approved or ratified the transaction; or
(b) The material facts of the transaction and the director's interest were disclosed or known to the members and they authorized, approved or ratified the transaction.

(3) For purposes of this section, a director of the corporation has an indirect interest in a transaction if:
(a) Another entity in which the director has a material interest or in which the director is a general partner is a party to the transaction; or
(b) Another entity of which the director is a director, officer or trustee is a party to the transaction.

(4) For purposes of subsection (2) of this section, a conflict of interest transaction is authorized, approved or ratified, if it receives the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors on the board or on the committee, who have no direct or indirect interest in the transaction. If a majority of the directors on the board who have no direct or indirect interest in the transaction vote to authorize, approve or ratify the transaction, a quorum is present for the purpose of taking action under this section. The presence of, or a vote cast by, a director with a direct or indirect interest in the transaction does not affect the validity of any action taken under subsection (2)(a) of this section if the transaction is otherwise approved as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(5) For purposes of subsection (2)(b) of this section, a conflict of interest transaction is authorized, approved or ratified by the members if it receives a majority of the votes entitled to be counted under this subsection. Votes cast by or voted under the control of a director who has a direct or indirect interest in the transaction, and votes cast by or voted under the control of an entity described in subsection (3)(a) of this section, may not be counted in a vote of members to determine whether to authorize, approve or ratify a conflict of interest transaction under subsection (2)(b) of this section. The vote of these members, however, is counted in determining whether the transaction is approved under other sections of this act. A majority of the voting power, whether or not present, that are entitled to be counted in a vote on the transaction under this subsection constitutes a quorum for the purpose of taking action under this section.

(6) The articles, bylaws or a resolution of the board may impose additional requirements on conflict of interest transactions.

[30-30-619, added 2015, ch. 243, sec. 79, p. 989.]

30-30-620. LOANS TO OR GUARANTEES FOR DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS. (1) Except with regard to loan or guarantee programs available to all members, a corporation may not lend money to or guarantee the obligation of a director or officer of the corporation, provided that a cooperative corporation may lend money to or guarantee the obligation of a director or officer with regard to loan or guarantee programs available to all members.

(2) The fact that a loan or guarantee is made in violation of this section does not affect the borrower's liability on the loan.

[30-30-620, added 2015, ch. 243, sec. 79, p. 990.]

30-30-621. REQUIRED OFFICERS. (1) Unless otherwise provided in the articles or bylaws, a corporation shall have a president, a secretary, a treasurer and such other officers as are appointed by the board. Except in the case of religious corporations, any two (2) or more offices may be held by the same person, except the offices of president and secretary. A religious corporation is not required to have officers.

(2) The bylaws or the board shall delegate to one (1) of the officers responsibility for preparing minutes of the directors' and members' meetings and for authenticating records of the corporation.

(3) The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one (1) office in a corporation.
30-30-622. DUTIES AND AUTHORITY OF OFFICERS. Each officer has the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in the bylaws or, to the extent consistent with the bylaws, the duties and authority prescribed in a resolution of the board or by direction of an officer authorized by the board to prescribe the duties and authority of other officers.

30-30-623. STANDARDS OF CONDUCT FOR OFFICERS. (1) An officer with discretionary authority shall discharge his duties under that authority:
   (a) In good faith;
   (b) With the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances; and
   (c) In a manner the officer reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation and its members, if any.
   (2) In discharging his duties, an officer is entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, if prepared or presented by:
      (a) One (1) or more officers or employees of the corporation who the officer reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented;
      (b) Legal counsel, public accountants or other persons as to matters the officer reasonably believes are within the person's professional or expert competence; or
      (c) In the case of religious corporations, religious authorities and ministers, priests, rabbis or other persons whose position or duties in the religious organization the officer believes justify reliance and confidence and who the officer believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented.
   (3) An officer is not acting in good faith if the officer has knowledge concerning the matter in question that makes reliance otherwise permitted by subsection (2) of this section unwarranted.
   (4) An officer is not liable to the corporation, any member, or other person for any action taken or not taken as an officer, if the officer acted in compliance with this section.

30-30-624. RESIGNATION AND REMOVAL OF OFFICERS. (1) An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the corporation. A resignation is effective when the notice is effective unless the notice specifies a future effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a future date and the corporation accepts the future effective date, its board of directors may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the board provides that the successor does not take office until the effective date.
   (2) A board may remove any officer at any time with or without cause.

30-30-625. OFFICERS' AUTHORITY TO EXECUTE DOCUMENTS. Any contract or other instrument in writing executed or entered into between a corporation and any other person is not invalidated as to the corporation by any lack of authority of the signing officers in the absence of actual knowledge on the part of the other person that the signing officers had no authority to execute the contract or other instrument if it is signed by any two (2) officers in category 1 of this section or by one (1) officer in category 1 of this section and one (1) officer in category 2 of this section.

Category 1 -- The presiding officer of the board and the president.
Category 2 -- A vice president, the secretary, treasurer and executive director.

[30-30-625, added 2015, ch. 243, sec. 79, p. 991.]

30-30-626. INDEMNIFICATION OF OFFICERS, DIRECTORS, EMPLOYEES AND AGENTS. (1) A corporation shall have power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, other than an action by or in the right of the corporation, by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses, including attorney's fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner that he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

(2) A corporation shall have power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses, including attorney's fees, actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duty to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the court in that such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses that such court shall deem proper.

(3) To the extent that a director, officer, employee or agent of a corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in subsection (1) or (2) of this section, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indem-nified against expenses, including attorney's fees, actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection herewith.

(4) Any determination under subsection (1) or (2) of this section, unless ordered by a court, shall be made by the corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director, officer, employee or agent is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in subsection (1) or (2) of this section. Such determination shall be made:
(a) By the board of directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding; or (b) If such quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion; or
(c) By the members.

(5) Expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding may be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon re-cipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director, officer, employee or agent to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he is not titled to be indemnified by the corporation as authorized in this section.

(6) The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to the other subsections of this section shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office.

(7) A corporation shall have power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this section; provided that credit unions chartered under the laws of the state of Idaho may provide indemnification only by insurance.

(8) For the purposes of this section, the term "corporation" includes, in addition to the resulting corporation, all constituent corporations and their predecessors absorbed in a consolidation or merger, which, if separate existence had continued, would have had power and authority to indemnify its directors, officers, employees or agents.

(9) The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this section shall, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, and personal representatives of such a person.

[30-30-626, added 2015, ch. 243, sec. 79, p. 991.]
30-30-701. AUTHORITY TO AMEND ARTICLES. A corporation may amend its articles of incorporation at any time to add or change a provision that is required or permitted in the articles or to delete a provision not required in the articles. Whether a provision is required or permitted in the articles is determined as of the effective date of the amendment.

[30-30-701, added 2015, ch. 243, sec. 80, p. 993.]

30-30-702. AMENDMENT OF ARTICLES BY DIRECTORS. (1) Unless the articles provide otherwise, a corporation's board of directors may adopt one (1) or more amendments to the corporation's articles without member approval:
(a) To extend the duration of the corporation if it was incorporated at a time when limited duration was required by law;
(b) To delete the names and addresses of the initial directors;
(c) To change the information required by section 30-21-404(a)(1), Idaho Code;
(d) To change the corporate name by substituting the word "corporation," "incorporated," "company," "limited," or the abbreviation "corp.," "inc.," "co.," or "ltd.," for a similar word or abbreviation in the name, or by adding, deleting or changing a geographical attribution to the name; or
(e) To make any other change expressly permitted by this act to be made by director action.

(2) If a corporation has no members, its incorporators, until directors have been chosen, and thereafter its board of directors, may adopt one (1) or more amendments to the corporation's articles subject to any approval required pursuant to section 30-30-801, Idaho Code. The corporation shall provide notice of any meeting at which an amendment is to be voted upon. The notice shall be in accordance with section 30-30-614(3), Idaho Code. The notice must also state that the purpose, or one (1) of the purposes, of the meeting is to consider a proposed amendment to the articles and contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the amendment or state the general nature of the amendment. The amendment must be approved by a majority of the directors in office at the time the amendment is adopted.

30-30-703. AMENDMENT OF ARTICLES BY DIRECTORS AND MEMBERS. (1) Unless this act, the articles, bylaws, the members, acting pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, or the board of directors, acting pursuant to subsection (3) of this section, require a greater vote or voting by class, an amendment to a corporation's articles to be adopted must be approved:
(a) By the board, if the amendment does not relate to the number of directors, the composition of the board, the term of office of directors, or the method or way in which directors are elected or selected;
(b) Except as provided in section 30-30-702(1), Idaho Code, by the members by two-thirds (2/3) of the votes cast or a majority of the voting power, whichever is less; and
(c) In writing by any person or persons whose approval is required by a provision of the articles authorized in this section.
(2) The members may condition the amendment's adoption on receipt of a higher percentage of affirmative votes or on any other basis.
(3) If the board initiates an amendment to the articles or board approval is required in subsection (1) of this section to adopt an amendment to the articles, the board may condition the amendment's adoption on receipt of a higher percentage of affirmative votes or any other basis.

(4) If the board or the members seek to have the amendment approved by the members at a membership meeting, the corporation shall give notice to its members of the proposed membership meeting in writing in accordance with section 30-30-505, Idaho Code. The notice must state that the purpose, or one (1) of the purposes, of the meeting is to consider the proposed amendment and contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the amendment.

(5) If the board or the members seek to have the amendment approved by the members by written consent or written ballot or absentee ballot, the material soliciting the approval shall contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the amendment.

[30-30-703, added 2015, ch. 243, sec. 80, p. 994.]

30-30-704. CLASS VOTING BY MEMBERS ON AMENDMENTS TO ARTICLES. (1) The members of a class in a corporation are entitled to vote as a class on a proposed amendment to the articles if the amendment would:

(a) Affect the rights, privileges, preferences, restrictions or conditions of that class as to voting, dissolution, redemption or transfer of memberships in a manner different than such amendment would affect another class;
(b) Change the rights, privileges, preferences, restrictions or conditions of that class as to voting, dissolution, redemption or transfer by changing the rights, privileges, preferences, restrictions or conditions of another class;
(c) Increase or decrease the number of memberships authorized for that class;
(d) Increase the number of memberships authorized for another class;
(e) Effect an exchange, reclassification or termination of the memberships of that class; or
(f) Authorize a new class of memberships.

(2) The members of a class of a religious corporation are entitled to vote as a class on a proposed amendment to the articles only if a class vote is provided for in the articles or bylaws.

(3) If a class is to be divided into two (2) or more classes as a result of an amendment to the articles of a corporation, the amendment must be approved by the members of each class that would be created by the amendment.

(4) Except as provided in the articles or bylaws of a religious corporation, if a class vote is required to approve an amendment to the articles of a corporation, the amendment must be approved by the members of the class by two-thirds (2/3) of the votes cast by the class or a majority of the voting power of the class, whichever is less.

(5) A class of members of a corporation, except a religious corporation, is entitled to the voting rights granted in this section although the articles and bylaws provide that the class may not vote on the proposed amendment.

[30-30-704, added 2015, ch. 243, sec. 80, p. 994.]

30-30-705. ARTICLES OF AMENDMENT. A corporation amending its articles shall deliver to the secretary of state articles of amendment setting forth:

(1) The name of the corporation;
(2) The text of each amendment adopted;
(3) The date of each amendment's adoption;
(4) If approval of members was not required, a statement to that effect and a statement that the amendment was approved by a sufficient vote of the board of directors or incorporators;
(5) If approval by members was required:
   (a) The designation, number of memberships outstanding, number of votes entitled to be cast by each class entitled to vote separately on the amendment, and number of votes of each class indisputably voting on the amendment; and
   (b) Either the total number of votes cast for and against the amendment by each class entitled to vote separately on the amendment or the total number of undisputed votes cast for the amendment by each class and a statement that the number cast for the amendment by each class was sufficient for approval by that class.
(6) If approval of the amendment by some person or persons other than the members, the board or the incorporators is required pursuant to section 30-30-801, Idaho Code, a statement that the approval was obtained.

[30-30-705, added 2015, ch. 243, sec. 80, p. 995.]

30-30-706. RESTATED ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION. (1) A corporation's board of directors may restate its articles of incorporation at any time with or without approval by members or any other person.
   (2) The restatement may include one (1) or more amendments to the articles. If the restatement includes an amendment requiring approval by the members or any other person, it must be adopted as provided in section 30-30-703, Idaho Code.
   (3) If the restatement includes an amendment requiring approval by members, the board must submit the restatement to the members for their approval.
   (4) If the board seeks to have the restatement approved by the members at a membership meeting, the corporation shall notify each of its members of the proposed membership meeting in writing in accordance with section 30-30-505, Idaho Code. The notice must also state that the purpose, or one (1) of the purposes, of the meeting is to consider the proposed restatement and contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the restatement that identifies any amendments or other change it would make in the articles.
   (5) If the board seeks to have the restatement approved by the members by written ballot or written consent, the material soliciting the approval shall contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the restatement that identifies any amendments or other change it would make in the articles.
