(c) The board of examiners, pursuant to section 67-2001, Idaho Code.

(d) The division of building safety: building code board, chapter 41, title 39, Idaho Code; electrical board, chapter 10, title 54, Idaho Code; public works contractors license board, chapter 19, title 54, Idaho Code; plumbing board, chapter 26, title 54, Idaho Code; public works construction management, chapter 45, title 54, Idaho Code; the heating, ventilation and air conditioning board, chapter 50, title 54, Idaho Code; and factory built structures advisory board, chapter 43, title 39, Idaho Code.

(e) The division of veterans services to be headed by a division administrator who shall be a nonclassified employee exempt from the provisions of chapter 53, title 67, Idaho Code. The administrator of the division shall administer the provisions of chapter 2, title 65, Idaho Code, and chapter 9, title 66, Idaho Code, with the advice of the veterans affairs commission established under chapter 2, title 65, Idaho Code, and shall perform such additional duties as are imposed upon him by law.

(f) The board of library commissioners, pursuant to section 33-2502, Idaho Code.

(g) The Idaho state historical society, pursuant to section 67-4123, Idaho Code.

(h) The state public defense commission, pursuant to section 19-849, Idaho Code.

(3) The bureau of occupational licenses is hereby created within the department of self-governing agencies.
67-2601A. DIVISION OF BUILDING SAFETY. (1) The division of building safety will be headed by an administrator appointed by and serving at the will of the governor. The division administrator, deputy administrators and regional managers shall be nonclassified employees exempt from the provisions of chapter 53, title 67, Idaho Code.

(2) The administrator shall administer the following provisions and shall perform such additional duties as are imposed on him by law: chapter 41, title 39, Idaho Code, relating to the building code board; chapter 40, title 39, Idaho Code, relating to manufactured homes; chapter 43, title 39, Idaho Code, relating to factory built structures; chapter 21, title 44, Idaho Code, relating to manufactured home dealer and installer licensing; chapter 25, title 44, Idaho Code, relating to mobile home rehabilitation; chapter 10, title 54, Idaho Code, relating to electrical contractors and journeymen; chapter 19, title 54, Idaho Code, relating to licensing of public works contractors; chapter 26, title 54, Idaho Code, relating to plumbing and plumbers; chapter 45, title 54, Idaho Code, relating to public works construction management licensing; chapter 50, title 54, Idaho Code, relating to heating, ventilation and air conditioning systems; chapter 80, title 39, Idaho Code, relating to school building safety; chapter 59, title 33, Idaho Code, relating to Idaho school safety and security; chapter 86, title 39, Idaho Code, relating to elevator safety; and chapter 22, title 55, Idaho Code, relating to underground facilities damage prevention.

(3) The administrator shall also have the authority to perform safety inspections and safety training programs for logging operations in Idaho.

(a) When an inspection reveals evidence of a condition that poses an immediate threat of serious bodily harm or loss of life to any person, the administrator and, while on public highways, the director of the Idaho state police and the Idaho transportation board, may issue an order to immediately stop the work, close the facility or site, or detain the vehicle where the threat exists. The safety order shall not be rescinded until after the threat has been corrected or removed.

(b) The safety order may be enforced by the attorney general in a civil action brought in the district court for the county wherein the hazardous work site or facility is located or the vehicle is detained.

(c) Any person who knowingly fails or refuses to comply with such an order is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(d) The administrator shall promulgate rules adopting minimum logging safety standards and procedures for conducting inspections and safety training.

(e) The director of the Idaho state police and the Idaho transportation board shall have authority on public highways to stop and inspect vehicles and enforce rules promulgated by the administrator pursuant to this section.

(4) In addition to safety inspections of state-owned public buildings conducted under chapter 23, title 67, Idaho Code, the administrator may conduct safety inspections of buildings owned or maintained by political subdivisions of the state upon receipt of a written request from the governing body of that political subdivision, subject to the availability of division resources and the requesting entity's agreement to pay the division's current fees for such an inspection.

(a) The findings of the inspection shall be reported to the governing body of the political subdivision.
(b) The administrator may promulgate rules adopting minimum safety standards and procedures for conducting such inspections, as well as fees for performing the same.
(c) For purposes of this section, "political subdivision" means any governmental unit or special district of the state of Idaho other than public school districts.

(5) In administering the laws regulating professions, trades and occupations that are devolved for administration upon the division, and in addition to the authority granted to the administrator by the laws and rules of the agencies and entities within the division, the administrator may:
(a) Revise the operating structure of the division as needed to provide efficient and appropriate services to the various professions, trades, occupations and programs administered within the division;
(b) Conduct examinations to ascertain the qualifications and fitness of applicants to exercise the profession, trade or occupation for which an examination is held; pass upon the qualifications of applicants for reciprocal licenses, certificates and authorities; prescribe rules for a fair and impartial method of examination of candidates to exercise the respective professions, trades or occupations; issue registrations, licenses and certificates; and until fees are established in rule, the administrator shall charge a fee of seventy-five dollars ($75.00) for each examination administered;
(c) Conduct hearings on proceedings to discipline, renew or reinstate licenses, certificates or authorities of persons exercising the respective professions, trades or occupations; appoint hearing officers, administer oaths, issue subpoenas, and compel the attendance of witnesses; revoke, suspend, refuse to renew, or take other disciplinary action against such licenses, certifications or authorities; and prescribe rules to assess costs and fees incurred in the investigation and prosecution or defense of any certificate holder, licensee or registrant of the division, its boards, bureaus and programs, in accordance with the provisions of section 12-117(5), Idaho Code, when applicable, the contested case provisions of chapter 52, title 67, Idaho Code, and the laws and rules of the boards, bureaus and programs the division administers;
(d) Assess civil penalties as authorized;
(e) Promulgate rules establishing: a coordinated system for the issuance, renewal, cancellation and reinstatement of licenses, certificates, registrations and permits; assessment of all related fees; the terms by which fees may be prorated, if any; and procedures for the replacement of lost or destroyed licenses, certificates or registrations; and
(f) Promulgate other rules as may be necessary for the orderly administration of the chapters specified in subsection (2) of this section, except for those related to underground facilities damage prevention contained in chapter 22, title 55, Idaho Code, and such rules as may otherwise be required by those chapters as well as rules for the standardization of operating procedures.
(6) Notwithstanding any law governing any specific board, bureau or program comprising the division of building safety, each board member shall hold office until a successor has been duly appointed and qualified.

(7) The administrator shall have the authority to employ individuals, make expenditures, enter into contracts, require reports, make investigations, travel, and take other actions deemed necessary.

67-2602. BUREAU OF OCCUPATIONAL LICENSES. (1) The bureau of occupational licenses created in the department of self-governing agencies by section 67-2601, Idaho Code, shall be empowered, by written agreement between the bureau and each agency for which it provides administrative or other services as provided by law, to provide such services for the board of acupuncture, board of architectural examiners, athletic commission, certified shorthand reporters board, board of chiropractic physicians, Idaho contractors board, licensing board of professional counselors and marriage and family therapists, state board of denturitry, drinking water and wastewater professionals, state driving businesses licensure board, Idaho board of massage therapy, Idaho board of registration for professional geologists, speech and hearing services licensure board, physical therapy licensure board, board of landscape architects, liquefied petroleum gas safety board, board of morticians, board of naturopathic medical examiners, board of examiners of nursing home administrators, occupational therapy licensure board, board of optometry, board of podiatry, board of psychologist examiners, real estate appraiser board, board of examiners of residential care facility administrators, board of social work examiners, board of midwifery, barber and cosmetology services licensing board and such other professional and occupational licensing boards or commodity commissions as may request such services. The bureau may charge a reasonable fee for such services provided any agency not otherwise provided for by law and shall maintain proper accounting methods for all funds under its jurisdiction.

(2) Notwithstanding the statutes governing specific boards, for any board that contracts with the bureau of occupational licenses, each board member shall hold office until a successor has been duly appointed and qualified.

(3) The department of self-governing agencies, by and through the bureau of occupational licenses, shall be empowered to provide administrative or other services for the administration of chapter 48, title 54, Idaho Code, to issue, suspend, revoke or refuse to renew licenses and certificates, to issue subpoenas, to prescribe and impose fees and to assess administrative penalties pursuant to the provisions of chapter 48, title 54, Idaho Code.

(4) Agencies that contract with the bureau of occupational licenses for administrative services may assess and the bureau may collect costs, fees and attorney’s fees reasonably incurred in the investigation and prosecution or defense of a licensee or registrant, pursuant to the provisions of section 12-117(5), Idaho Code.
67-2602A. LICENSE FEES -- MILITARY EXEMPTION. All persons holding occupational or professional licenses issued by the state of Idaho and who are serving in the armed forces of the United States, or their allies, or auxiliary services thereof, and any prisoners of war in custody of the enemy countries of the United States or their allies, including those in the armed services and auxiliary services and any prisoners of war as of July 1, 1942, shall be exempt from the payment of any professional or occupational license or renewal fee required by any law of this state for the period during which such persons shall be engaged in the military services of the United States, or its auxiliary branches, or held as prisoners. And during such period of military service, or service in the auxiliary branches thereof, or servitude and for six (6) months following the discharge from such military service or auxiliary service or servitude in the present war, such license shall remain in good standing without the necessity of renewal and during said period the same shall not be cancelled, suspended or revoked.

67-2603. BUREAU CHIEF -- EXPENSES. The chief administrative officer of the bureau of occupational licenses shall be the bureau chief who shall be appointed by the governor and shall serve at the pleasure of the governor. The expenses of the bureau chief, and such secretarial, technical or other personnel as he may deem necessary for the conduct of the affairs of the bureau, shall be paid from the occupational licenses fund.

67-2604. AUTHORITY GRANTED BY WRITTEN AGREEMENT. Unless otherwise provided for by law, and pursuant to the terms of a written agreement executed between the bureau and the agency for which it shall act as authorized agent, the bureau of occupational licenses shall provide such services, and have and exercise such powers, duties and authority as the agreement shall specify. Each agreement so executed shall specify the following:

(1) the specific statutory authority by which the bureau shall act as authorized agent for the agency;

(2) the specific actions which the bureau chief may, as executive officer of the bureau, take when acting in the interest of such agency;

(3) the actions which may be taken by the bureau chief acting in discretion without specific authorization from the agency for which the bureau may act;

(4) the approximate cost of the services provided the agency by the bureau, if not otherwise provided by law, the terms of compensation to the bu-bureau for services rendered, and the provision of bond for personnel of the bureau pursuant to chapter 8, title 59, Idaho Code;

(5) each agreement executed between the bureau and the agency for which the bureau is authorized to act shall include the terms, conditions and procedures by which the bureau chief may initiate proceedings to assure the collection and payment for services rendered by the bureau which are not otherwise provided for by law;

(6) the terms and conditions under which either party executing the agreement shall be able, without penalty, to terminate said agreement;

(7) the provision that all funds transferred to the bureau in compensation for services rendered shall be deposited in the occupational licenses fund against which warrants shall be drawn by the bureau chief in payment of expenses of the bureau in the administration of this act;

(8) the provision that each such agreement so executed by the bureau and agency for which it may provide said services shall be approved by the attorney general for consistency with law before execution shall be valid.

[67-2604, added I.C., sec. 67-2604, as added by 1974, ch. 13, sec. 2, p. 138.]

67-2605. OCCUPATIONAL LICENSES ACCOUNT CREATED -- DISPOSITION OF FEES. There is hereby created a special account to be known as the occupational licenses account. All fees and renewal fees received by the bureau of occupational licenses for licenses to engage in trades, businesses, occupations or professions shall be deposited to the credit of the occupational licenses account.

67-2606. OCCUPATIONAL LICENSES ACCOUNT -- PAYMENT OF EXPENSES OF BUREAU FROM -- MANNER. No moneys in the occupational license account may be expended except by appropriation. All expenses of the bureau of occupational licenses, including salaries and/or wages of employees, incurred in administering the provisions of law relative to the licensing of trades, businesses, occupations and professions shall be paid out of the occupational licenses account by warrants drawn by the state controller upon the treasurer upon allowance of verified claims by the state board of examiners in the manner provided by law, but no claim shall be allowed except by the approval of the chief of the bureau of occupational licenses.

67-2608. BUREAU CHIEF TO COOPERATE WITH OTHER AGENCIES. The chief of the bureau of occupational licenses may, in the administration of this chapter, share information and otherwise cooperate with government regulatory and law enforcement agencies.

67-2609. REGISTRATION OF OCCUPATIONS. (a) The bureau of occupational licenses shall, wherever the several laws regulating professions, trades and occupations which are devolved upon the bureau for administration so require or pursuant to written agreement as provided in section 67-2604, Idaho Code, exercise, in its name, or as authorized agent, but subject to the provisions of this chapter, the following powers:

1. To conduct examinations to ascertain the qualifications and fitness of applicants to exercise the profession, trade or occupation for which an examination is held; to pass upon the qualifications of applicants for reciprocal licenses, certificates and authorities;

2. To prescribe rules for a fair and wholly impartial method of examination of candidates to exercise the respective professions, trades or occupations;

3. To prescribe rules defining, for the respective professions, trades and occupations, what shall constitute a school, college or university, or department of a university, or other institution, reputable and in good standing and to determine the reputability and good standing of a school, college or university, or department of a university, or other institution, by reference to a compliance with such rules;

4. To establish a standard of preliminary education deemed requisite to admission to a school, college or university, and to require satisfactory proof of the enforcement of such standard by schools, colleges and universities;

5. To conduct hearings on proceedings to revoke or refuse renewal of licenses, certificates or authorities of persons exercising the respective professions, trades or occupations, and to revoke or refuse to renew such licenses, certificates or authorities;

6. To formulate rules for adoption by the boards allowing the boards to assess costs and fees incurred in the investigation and prosecution or defense of a licensee in accordance with the provisions of section 12-117(5), Idaho Code, and with the contested case provisions of chapter 52, title 67, Idaho Code, for an alleged violation of laws or rules of the boards;

7. To formulate rules for adoption by the boards establishing a schedule of civil fines which may be imposed upon a licensee prosecuted in accordance with the contested case provisions of chapter 52, title 67, Idaho Code, for a violation of laws or rules of the boards. Any civil fine collected by a board for a violation of its laws or rules shall not exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000), unless otherwise provided by statute, and shall be deposited in the bureau of occupational licensing account;

8. To formulate rules when required in any act to be administered; and

9. To collect and pay such fees as are required for criminal background checks of applicants, licensees or registrants.

(b) None of the functions and duties in subsection (a) of this section shall be exercised by the bureau of occupational licenses except upon the action and report in writing of persons designated from time to time by the chief of the bureau of occupational licenses to take such action and to make such report, for the respective professions, trades and occupations.

67-2610. EXAMINERS' REPORT. The action or report in writing of a majority of the persons designated for any given trade, occupation or profession, shall be sufficient authority upon which the chief of the bureau of occupational licenses may act.

[67-2610, added I.C., sec. 67-2610, as added by 1974, ch. 13, sec. 2, p. 138.]

67-2611. DESIGNATION OF EXAMINERS -- RECOMMENDATION OF PROFESSIONAL SOCIETIES. In making the designation of persons to act for the several professions, trades and occupations the bureau chief shall give due consideration to recommendation by members of the respective professions, trades and occupations and by organizations therein.

[67-2611, as added by 1974, ch. 13, sec. 2, p. 138.]

67-2612. REGISTRATION OF OCCUPATIONS -- REEXAMINATIONS. Whenever the bureau chief is satisfied that substantial justice has not been done either in an examination or in the revocation of or refusal to renew a license, certificate or authority he may order reexamination or rehearings by the same or other examiners.

[67-2612, added I.C., sec. 67-2612, as added by 1974, ch. 13, sec. 2, p. 138.]

67-2613. ISSUANCE OF LICENSES -- LOSS OF LICENSE -- ISSUANCE OF DUPLICATE -- FEE. All certificates, licenses and authorities shall be issued by the bureau of occupational licenses in the name of such bureau, with the seal thereof attached: provided that if any certificate, license or authority issued by such bureau shall be lost or destroyed, the bureau is hereby authorized on application of the owner thereof, to issue a certified copy or a duplicate under the seal of such bureau; the applicant asking for such duplicate or certified copy, shall accompany the application with an affidavit setting forth the facts showing that the original has been lost or destroyed; that for such certified copy or duplicate, the bureau shall charge a fee of ten dollars ($10.00), which fee shall be by the bureau handled as other fees collected for licenses.

67-2614. RENEWAL OR REINSTATENMENT OF LICENSES. All licenses or registrations issued by the boards served by the bureau of occupational licenses as a prerequisite to engaging in a trade, occupation or profession shall be subject to annual renewal and shall expire and be canceled unless renewed prior to expiration as provided by this section. The required fee for annual renewals shall be the amount set forth in the laws and rules of the governing board. As used in this section, the term "person," unless otherwise indicated, shall mean a natural person or an entity applying for licensure or registration pursuant to the laws or rules of a board served by the bureau.

(1) All natural persons required to procure a license or registration must annually renew the same on or before the birthday of the holder of the license or registration in the manner prescribed in subsection (3) of this section. However, the first renewal of the license or registration shall not be required until twelve (12) months after the holder's next birthday following the initial licensure or registration.

(2) All persons required to procure a license or registration for an entity or a facility as a prerequisite for operating a business or place of business in which a trade, occupation or profession is practiced must annually renew the same on or before the anniversary of the original issue date of the license or registration in the manner prescribed in subsection (3) of this section.

(3) Licenses or registrations may be renewed up to six (6) weeks prior to the expiration date.

(a) Submission of an approved and completed paper or electronic renewal application prior to expiration is the responsibility of each licensee or registrant. Failure to receive a renewal application or notice shall not excuse failure to comply with renewal requirements.

(b) The renewal application shall be submitted to the bureau along with the required renewal fee and confirmation of compliance with renewal requirements of the relevant board including, but not limited to, insurance, completion of any continuing education and payment of all fines, costs, fees, including attorney's fees, or other amounts that are due and owing to the board or in compliance with a payment arrangement with the board.

(4) Whenever a change of the licensee's or registrant's address of record occurs, the licensee or registrant must immediately notify the bureau in writing of the change. The bureau will use the most recent mailing address it has on file for purposes of all written communication with a licensee or registrant. It is the responsibility of each licensee and registrant to keep the bureau informed of a current mailing address and any other contact information.

(5) Fees for renewal and reinstatement cannot be waived or refunded unless otherwise provided by board law or rule.

(6) If a license or registration is not renewed on or before the expiration date, it shall be immediately canceled by the bureau following the date of expiration. Within five (5) years of the date of expiration, the bureau may reinstate a license or registration canceled for failure to renew upon receiving documentation of compliance with requirements for timely renewal as set forth in subsection (3)(b) of this section and any other reinstatement requirements of the board plus payment of a reinstatement fee of thirty-five dollars ($35.00) or other amount as provided by board law or rule.

(7) (a) When a license or registration has been canceled for a period of more than five (5) years, the person so affected shall be required to make application for a new license or registration to the bureau. The application shall consist of the following:

(i) All forms and information required of an applicant for a new license or registration; and

(ii) The fee currently required of an applicant for a new license or registration.

(b) In addition to the application, the person shall provide:

(i) All moneys due and owing to the board, or proof that the person is in compliance with a payment arrangement made with the board;
and

(ii) Information required by the board that demonstrates the person is of good moral character.
(c) The person shall fulfill certain requirements as determined by the board that demonstrate the person's competency to resume practice in this state. Such requirements may include, but are not limited to, education, supervised practice and examination. The board may consider the person's practice in another jurisdiction in determining the person's competency.

(d) Persons who fulfill the conditions and requirements of this subsection shall be issued a new license or registration.

67-2615. LIMITED APPLICATION OF THIS CHAPTER. The provisions of this chapter prescribing powers and duties of the bureau of occupational licenses concerning regulation, examination, licensure, fees and deposit thereof for trades, occupations or professions shall be applicable only where such powers and duties are not invested by other provisions of law in any other board, commission, department or agency.

[67-2615, added I.C., sec. 67-2615, as added by 1974, ch. 13, sec. 2, p. 138.]

67-2616. RECORDING OF LICENSES. Every license that may hereafter be issued by the bureau of occupational licenses as a prerequisite to engage in a trade, occupation, or profession shall be recorded in the office of the bureau, which shall relieve the licensee from being required to record the same in the office of the county recorder in the county in which the licensee intends to practice. No fee shall be charged for the recording of the license by the bureau.

67-2617. PAYMENT OF REEXAMINATION AND CERTIFICATE FEES. Should an applicant who is required to procure a license from the bureau of occupational licenses as a prerequisite for engaging in a trade, occupation, or profession fail to pass the required examination the applicant may be reexamined at any regular or special meeting of the bureau as it may be authorized to act for such board of examiners, upon the payment of fifty dollars ($50.00) reexamination fee.

Every person who is licensed by the bureau of occupational licenses as a prerequisite to engage in a trade, occupation, or profession may, upon the payment of a ten dollar ($10.00) fee, receive a certificate setting forth that the holder thereof is duly registered and licensed to practice his profession in the state of Idaho.

67-2618. ATTORNEY GENERAL TO ADVISE AND REPRESENT. The attorney general of the state of Idaho shall represent the bureau of occupational licenses and shall give opinions on all questions of law arising out of the administration of the laws which it shall administer, and to act for, and in behalf of, the bureau in all actions brought for or against it under the provisions of this chapter, or as otherwise provided by law.
67-2619. CLARIFICATION OF DEFINITIONS. Solely for the purposes of chapter 14, title 67, Idaho Code, the associations created in chapters 36 and 43, title 41, Idaho Code, shall be considered self-governing entities as defined in chapter 26, title 67, Idaho Code, which creates the department of self-governing agencies.

[67-2619, added 1995, ch. 184, sec. 1, p. 670.]
